MONEY NOT HELD IN TRUST

J. P. Morgan Co. Writes the Pujo Committee Concentration Is Impossible
Financiers Deplore Existence of Belief That Panics Are Man-Made

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—A general denial of the existence or possibility of a "money trust" was presented to the House money trust committee today in a long letter sent by J. P. Morgan & Co. at the invitation of the committee.

Simultaneously, Chairman Pujo gave out a reply, in which the committee informed Morgan & Co. that the committee's request had been made on January 27, since when the committee had been at work on its report for a month.

"Your memorandum," the reply concluded, "manifestly comes too late to be of value."

The Morgan letter laid at the door of the present banking and currency laws the responsibility for any concentration of money and credit that may exist.

In its conclusions as to the committee's activities, the Morgan letter said: "We venture to submit that in a strong public opinion, there lies the greatest safeguard of the community."

PUBLIC HOLDS POWER.

"The public are the ones who entrust bankers with such influence and power as they today have in every civilized land and the public is unlikely to entrust that power to wicked or evil hands. Your counsel asked witnesses whether the present power held by bankers in this country would not be a menace if it lay in evil hands. If Congress were to fall into evil hands the results might be deplorable. But to us it seems as little likely that the citizens of this country will fill Congress with rascals as it is that they will entrust the leadership of their business and financial affairs to a set of clever rogues."

BLAME BANKING SYSTEM.

Such concentration of money in New York as has occurred, the letter says, is due to an "antiquated banking system" and the natural law which "in every country creates some one city as the great financial center."

"That part of the money trust resolution declaring that it is 'generally believed' that groups of financiers 'create, avert and compose panics' was particularly attacked. Morgan and company set forth the any withholding of money or credit from any man in any market would be 'promptly relieved by the automatic flow of credit from some altogether foreign source.'"

DEPLORE SUSPICIONS.

"We regret," said the letter, "that a bolder, so incredible, so absurd and so harmful to the country should for a moment have found lodgment anywhere. And we welcome your invitation as an opportunity for us to state, to the extent of our observations and experience there is not even a vestige of truth in the idea that in whole or in part the financial convulsion of 1907 was brought on through the design of any man or men."

'I Must Be Brave,' Is Lady Scott's Remark
Wife of Gallant Explorer Hears News of Husband's Fate on Ocean.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., Feb. 27.—Lady Robert F. Scott, widow of the Antarctic explorer, arrived here today on board the Aorangi. She heard of the terrible fate of her husband while she was in mid-ocean off Fiji. As soon as she had recovered from the first shock she said:

"I must be brave, as my husband would have wished me to be."

The brother of the late explorer, Commander Edward Evans of the British navy, who brought back the sad news from the Antarctic, met Lady Scott on the pier.

Senate Agrees to Give $1,500,000 For 1915 Fair
Perkins Proposes Amendment Which Is Adopted on Roll Call.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Senate today adopted an amendment to the sundry civil bill, appropriating $1,500,000 for a government exhibit at the San Francisco exposition to be held in 1915. The amendment was proposed by Senator Perkins of California and was adopted without a roll call.

105-Year-Old Bride Dies; Groom Is Ill
Mrs. M. E. Leon Expires of Excitement Over Unique Wedding.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—Unable to withstand the excitement of her fight to be rid of a guardian and to marry Pleasantino Leon, her sweet heart for 50 years, Mrs. Marcelina Elizalde Leon, known for a few days as the 105-year-old bride, is dead today.

The wedding ceremony was performed last Friday immediately after Judge Rives of the probate department of the Superior Court had dismissed Mrs. Leon's niece as guardian over her person and property, which was worth between $75,000 and $100,000. She collapsed shortly afterward.

Although she claimed to be 105 years old, Mrs. Leon's age was given in the death certificate as 78. Pleasantino Leon, the bereaved bridegroom, is 82 years old. He is in a precarious condition as a result of his grief.

Intimations were made today by attorneys representing Mrs. Leon's relatives that a contest would be instituted against the elderly bridegroom in the probate court for the possession of the estate of the dead bride.

French Ministers Ask $100,000,000 for War
Increase of Armaments Is the Request Made to Parliament.

PARIS, Feb. 27.—The French parliament was today asked to appropriate $100,000,000 "for the renewal and increase of armaments and war materials." This request was made by the minister of war and finance, in a note which said:

"Recent wars have shown convincingly that the national means of defense should be kept abreast of the progress of science and military art. Any inferiority in this respect would be more difficult to remedy during a war."

Tailor Is Found Dead Standing at Counter

H. Wrage Expires of Heart Failure While at Work in Shop.

FRUITVALE, Feb. 27.—Herman Wrage, a tailor of Fruitvale, was found dead today standing at the counter of his shop by one of his customers. Wrage lived alone in a home on Twenty-fifth avenue. It is thought that he was taken with heart failure while at work. He died with a suit, which he was making, in his hands.

Fear German Oil Steamer Is Lost
Theresa Horn Has Not Been Heard From for 35 Days.

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., Feb. 27.—The German steamer Theresa Horn, which left this city 35 days ago for Rotterdam with a cargo of oil, has not been heard from. It is feared she foundered in the gulf.

Earthquakes Terrorize Ecuador Populace
Inhabitants of Three Towns Pass Night on the Streets.

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Feb. 27.—Violent earthquakes occurred last night at Guayaquil, Ecuador, and serious damage was done, but the panic-stricken population passed the remainder of the night on the streets.

VENGEANCE SOUGHT BY VILLA

One-Time Bandit Takes Field in Sonora With Strong Following
Carranza's Revolt Will Keep Strong U. S. Force on the Border

EL PASO, Feb. 27.—Francisco Villa, who was once a leader of bandits and later was made a general of insurgents by the late President Madero, is reported to have taken the field in Sonora, seeking vengeance for the death of his former commander. He disappeared yesterday from El Paso, where he had been since his escape from the penitentiary at Mexico City.

Villa had been jailed by order of General Huerta, who charged that while commanding a volunteer corps he had returned to his former practices. He has a strong following, which is expected to join him.

CHIHUAHUA IS QUIET.

Passengers arriving early today from Chihuahua City report all quiet, with no armed opposition to the military government. The trial of Abraham Gonzalez, the deposed governor, charged with sedition, is progressing slowly. An attorney has been appointed to defend the deposed governor, who remains in the state penitentiary. Albert Madero, an uncle of the deceased president, still is a refugee in the American consulate at Chihuahua City.

The Mexican Central railway remains out of commission below Chihuahua City, due to the activity of mutinous volunteer troops. Minor uprisings are reported at various points to the south.

Three hundred federal volunteers during the night left their barracks at Chihuahua City and escaped to the hills. Mobilization of ex-insurrecto troops is reported at various points in Chihuahua state.

Recognition to Be Next Step of U. S.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The appointment by President Huerta of a new ambassador to the United States in the person of Emilio Rabasa, is expected to have the effect of bringing to a speedy issue the question of recognition by the United States of the provisional government of Mexico.

Up to the present time the relations between the two governments have been on a de facto basis and no formal recognition has not been committed to a political recognition of the Huerta government, although Ambassador Wilson freely has transacted business with it.

Now that the threatened revolt of Governor Carranza of Coahuila actually has taken form the military authorities here have concluded that it is yet too early to carry out their plans for any considerable reduction of the American military force on the Mexican border.

PRECAUTION IS TAKEN.

Secretary Stimson has assured the Senate committee on foreign relations that precaution has been taken to prevent the entry into Texas of raiding parties of Mexicans, and if necessary some of the troops now being gathered at Galveston will be made up of a division at least temporarily will be diverted to patrol duty on the Texas boundary. If the reports from the American officers on the north side of the line and the American consuls in the border states of Mexico show necessity for such action.

Peace Appears on the Surface

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 27.—Confidence in the Huerta administration appears daily to wax stronger, and faith reports as to the rapid vanishing of the rebel spirit throughout the republic.

Plots and conspiracies against the provisional president are still talked of in Mexico, but there is no longer an outward appearance of harmony between leaders of the new regime. Provisional President Huerta and Felix Diaz seem to be working together to bring about general peace which both express themselves as ardently desiring.

The collapse of the revolutionary movement both north and south appears to be imminent. The latest adherent to the government is General Orozco, who has sent a telegram declaring his allegiance.

ZAPATA OBDURATE.

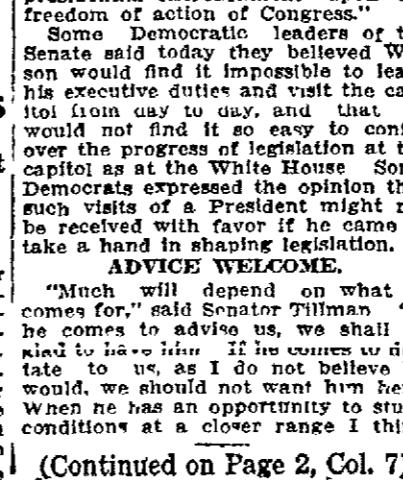

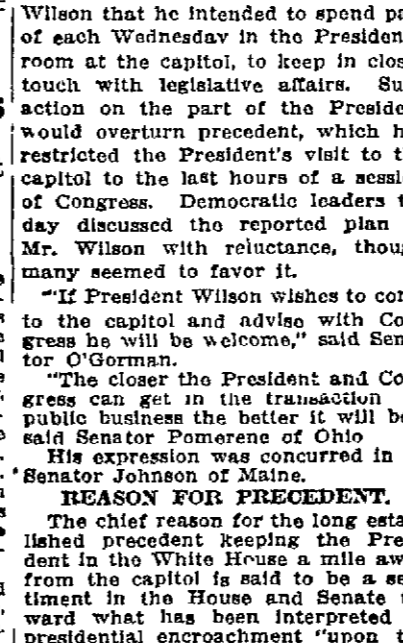

Enthusiasm exists on the other hand remains obdurate, although many of this morning. It was promptly accepted.

Superintendent of Mattewan Resigns

Dr. John W. Russell Doesn't Wait for Governor Sulzer to Act.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 27.—Governor Sulzer conferred today with the committee inquiring into the latest Shaw scandal and announced that he should demand the immediate resignation from office of Dr. John W. Russell, superintendent of the Mattewan Hospital, Dover, N. H., however, did not wait to receive the governor's summons. He announced that he had handed in his resignation this morning. It was promptly accepted.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVES WHO ARE TAKING A LEADING PART IN THE STANFORD-CALIFORNIA IMBROGLIO: ON THE RIGHT IS H. H. PHILGER, WHILE THE THREE ON THE LEFT (TOP TO BOTTOM) ARE F. T. GRIFFITHS, W. G. DONALD AND MILTON FARNER

STANFORD BREAKS OFF ALL RELATIONS WITH STATE COLLEGE

California's Abrogation of Part of Football Pact Brings Retaliation

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 27.—Stanford and the University of California have severed athletic relations. A report to that effect was confirmed today at the offices of the university, where it was added that the action taken followed the receipt of information from Berkeley that the State University had decided to abrogate a portion of the football agreement, which has been in dispute.

A copy of the resolution passed last night was forwarded today to the California authorities.

According to the statement made, no agreement under which the annual Rugby contest can be held now exists. If the game is to be played this fall a new agreement will have to be drafted.

The resolution abrogating the entire agreement with California was adopted last night by the executive committee of the Associated Students.

The student body at the University of California took the position that one clause of the rules adopted 1907 to cover the introduction of Rugby football had been considered as effective for each year only and must be renewed each year. No question to bring the matter to an issue arose until just before the big game last year.

WANTED TO NAME UMPIRE.

Stanford wished at that time to appoint an umpire in addition to the referee who directed the play. Various charges of intentional rough play in that desire. This was provided for in the rules and the question of the permanency of the rules then came up. An arbitration committee was appointed which recommended the abrogation of the clause in question. California took that action, but it was not satisfactory to Stanford.

The position taken at Stanford, as stated today by H. L. Lound of the executive committee and editor of the Daily Palo Alto, was that there was nothing left for Stanford to do but withdraw formally from the agreement as a whole and begin the drafting of a new and clearer set of rules and regulations.

SURPRISE AT U. OF C.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 27.—The action of the Stanford students in breaking off athletic relations with the University of California came as a total surprise to the officials of the student body here. They declare that the abrogation of sections of the intercollegiate agreement was done by California at the direct suggestion of Stanford members of the arbitration board.

The dispute is of a year's standing. Stanford previously objected to California's failure to have an umpire at the last Rugby game. The discussion on this point has severely outlined the clash in opinion of the two universities as to whether the intercollegiate agreement was inherently of a year's standing or permanent.

The dispute grew so warm between the two universities that an arbitration board of three men from each college was appointed. This board consisted of Farnham Griffiths, Milton T. Farmer and H. H. Philger. Stanford was represented by James Carragan, Professor Folsom and Palmer Fuller.

This committee, finally decided a week ago Saturday night that it was unable to reach a satisfactory conclusion.

According to Griffith Stanford members of the arbitration board objected that it would be necessary for one or other of the universities to abrogate the sections in the intercollegiate agreement dealing with the powers of the football rules committee. These being abrogated the intercollegiate committee was to meet and determine upon new rules. A discussion was had by the arbitration board as to which university should take the initiative. By unanimous agreement this task was left to California. As there was absolutely no objection from Stanford delegates to the arbitration board to such action California supposed it was so authorized.

In conformity with this supposition the executive committee of the associated students of the University of California two nights ago abrogated the most section of the agreement and immediately notified Stanford of its action. Under the regulation the abrogation was to become effective 90 days after the receipt of notification by Stanford.

ONE SENTENCE ABROGATED.

The action of the executive committee Tuesday night was in substance as follows:

In article one, section one, subsection A, the last sentence is abrogated. This sentence reads: "The rules shall be such as are laid down by the rules committee hereinafter described."

The portion of article one describing the power of the rules committee

Angry Mother Attacks Man Accused by Girl

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Rushing past court bailiffs and court attendances, intent only on wreaking vengeance upon the man she accuses of wrecking the life of her little daughter, Mrs. C. M. Fraser sprang upon Robert De Sparr, a laundry wagon driver, charged with felonious assault and force at his hair and struck him in the face before a startled court room this afternoon.

"Oh, God, let me have him. I want to tear him to pieces. I want to strike him. Let me go! Let me go!" screamed the hysterical woman, as uniformed officers dragged her away from the man who had just been ordered into the dock. His bail raised to $20,000.

De Sparr, who lives at 1563 Dolores street, was arrested February 10 after the child, Loraine Fraser, had confessed to her mother that a short time previous, while she was riding on the seat of De Sparr's wagon, he had attacked her.

Want Pennsylvania Built At Mare Island Yards

VALLEJO, Feb. 27.—California's Congressional delegation was urged by telegram last night by the Merchants' Association of the city to confer with the navy department on bids for the construction of the huge battleship Pennsylvania. The Mare Island navy yard bid, according to advices from Washington, was the lowest submitted. Contracts have not been awarded yet and the Merchants' Association hopes to convince the department of the advisability of accepting the Mare Island offer. The impression prevails here that the lowest bidder among the private yards submitting estimates will get the work as the department did not announce the various navy yard bids on February 18, when the other offers were made public.

Healdsburg Woman Burns To Death in Night Blaze

HEALDSBURG, Feb. 27.—Her night dress saturated with oil from an overturned lamp, Mrs. W. C. Mason, mother of City Marshal James Mason, was burned to death here last night. A colored maid servant, formerly a slave belonging to Mrs. Mason's family, had lit the lamp, which had been put off by the flames and forced to leap from a second-story window, suffering serious injuries.

RICHMOND IS TURNED DOWN BY BOARD

Harbor Project Receives a Jolt From Rivers and Harbors Engineers.

Adverse Report Made Against Government Expenditure; City Can't Help.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—The project for building a protected harbor at Richmond, Cal., recommended by the district officer, has been frowned on by the Board of Engineers of Rivers and Harbors. The board has rendered a report to the effect that, as the entire cost, considering Richmond's inability to bond the city for any part of the cost, would devolve on the government, the expenditure of $1,500,000 would hardly be justified as a matter of public good. Notice has been served on proponents of the plan here to be ready with arguments before the case finally is placed before the legislators.

WAS RECOMMENDED.

The project was recommended by the district officer on the contingency of the city contributing something like $600,000 to aid in the work. Under its present bonding power it has been found that the city will be unable to contribute in any way.

Richmond harbor was examined in accordance with the River and Harbor Act of February 27, 1911, and a project, involving the making of a protected and harbor, plan, Charles Curry who leaves soon for Washington, will be asked to represent this city at the meeting of the board of engineers, and several letters bearing arguments on the matter have been sent.

RENEWED EFFORT MADE.

RICHMOND, Feb. 27.—Plans are being discussed to make a last appeal for the harbor plan, plan, Charles Curry who leaves soon for Washington, will be asked to represent this city at the meeting of the board of engineers, and several letters bearing arguments on the matter have been sent.

MAY PUT UNION MAN IN CABINET

Uncertainty Exists Regarding the Appointments to Three Portfolios.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The idea of union labor for representation in the President's cabinet may be recognized in the selection of Representative William B. Wilson of Pennsylvania to be secretary of the newly created department of labor. This information, along with other reliable advice, came to the political leaders at the capital today direct from Trenton.

Representative Wilson has been endorsed by the American Federation of Labor and was at one time secretary of the United Mine Workers of America.

From the same sources it was learned that William C. Redfield of Brooklyn might be a member of the cabinet. For what portfolio he is being considered was not divulged, but it is known that the President-elect holds the highest regard for Redfield's views on the tariff and has for some time hoped to have him as one of his close advisers.

DARK HORSES ENTERED.

About the future of three portfolios—agriculture, interior and war—little is known and it is known that they will be filled by men whose names have not been generally mentioned heretofore.

Though William A. Glasgow, a Philadelphia lawyer, and Edgar Farrar of New Orleans, former president of the American Bar Association, are reported still to be under consideration, the most reliable information obtainable today is that James C. McReynolds of New York will be the new attorney general.

BRYAN FOR STATE PORTFOLIO.

Confirmation comes from every side that the President-elect has selected William J. Bryan for secretary of state, William H. McAdoo for secretary of the treasury, Josephus Daniels for secretary of the navy and Representative Burton of Texas for postmaster general.

The name of Louis D. Brandeis still is known to be uppermost in Wilson's mind for secretary of commerce, as the post now held by Mr. Nagel probably will be filled hereafter.

It is said Wilson from the first was anxious to place a Progressive representative in his cabinet and the selection of Brandeis is believed to be a result of that desire.

The information as yet with respect to diplomatic posts is meager. It is known here today that Frederick C. Penfield of Philadelphia and Henry N. Morganthau of New York are very likely to be chosen for ambassadorships, the former to Rome and the latter to Berlin.

Snow Drifts Deepen On Mt. Wilson

New Fall Makes Travel Difficult and Tourists Are Marooned.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—The heavy drifts of snow on Mount Wilson which marooned several persons during the recent storm were increased yesterday and last night by light falls. Reports today, however, were to the effect that only a few people were on the mountain and that there was an abundant supply of food.

U. S. TO KEEP FORCE AT BORDER; REVOLT FEARED

Recognition of Huerta Will Follow Rabasa Appointment

his chief supporters have come into line with the new order of things. Venustiano Carranza, former governor of the State of Coahuila, according to dispatches received here, has not succeeded in obtaining general support for his attitude against Huerta.

Further adherence to the government was registered last night when Rafael Tapia, a former chief of rural guards in the state of Tlaxcala, with 600 men, signed his desire to surrender. Tapia conferred with the federal minister of war yesterday and was told to return for another conference, bringing with him Antonio Hidalgo, a candidate for the governorship of Tlaxcala, who is in rebellion.

Camp Crockett Swept by Storm

GALVESTON, Tex., Feb. 27.—A heavy squall hit wind and rain early today swept over Camp Crockett, where the main force of the second army division will mobilize. The 3000 men in camp were awakened to brace their tents, a few of which were blown down.

Major-General Carter, in command of the division, is scheduled to arrive with his staff late today. News dispatches tell of troop trains all over the southwest rapidly converging on Galveston.

ESTABLISH JOINT CAMP.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 27.—Troops of the United States Cavalry, which arrived from Laredo yesterday, and five companies of the National Guard of Texas have established a joint camp at Fort Brown, situated since the withdrawal of the twenty-fifth infantry in 1905 because of "shooting up" of Brownsville.

The two forces were hurried here after it was erroneously reported that Americans in Matamoros, Mex., were being forced to contribute to the city administration in 1905 because of "shooting up" of Brownsville.

SIGNAL CORPS TO PARTICIPATE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—When the army aviators now in their camp at Augusta, Ga., proceed to Galveston, Tex., that branch of the signal corps for the first time will participate in the maneuvers of an entire division of the United States army. Brigadier-General George P. Scriven, chief signal officer, is awaiting with much interest the results of the work of the aviators.

The officers who will go to Galveston as soon as orders are issued are Captain Charles de Forest Chandler, in charge of the school at Augusta, and Lieutenants Graham, Sherman, Kirland and Mulling. Lieutenants Call and Ellington, now at Palm Beach, Fla., and Captain Frederick B. Hennessy, now in Washington.

They will have with them seven machines, including one hydroaeroplane now at Palm Beach.

TROOPS ARE DELAYED.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—The troop movement to Galveston has been checked by inclement weather, according to reports received here today at army headquarters.

A section of the Twenty-seventh infantry was five hours late getting out of St. Louis early today. Another section was delayed several hours last night by a washout at Joplin, Mo. Severe snow storms in the west have impeded the progress of a large number of troops.

The Eleventh infantry at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming, was unable to leave until today. The Sixth Cavalry at Fort Des Moines also made a belated departure today. The only troops ordered out which have not yet moved are four companies of the Twenty-sixth infantry at Fort Brady, Michigan. It is expected that they will get away by night. Several carloads of commissary supplies were dispatched from this city to Galveston today.

Joint Endeavor to Restore Peace

LAREDO, Tex., Feb. 27.—Provisional President Huerta has sent telegrams to several merchants of Laredo, stating that he understood Colonel Geronimo Villareal had taken possession of Nuevo Laredo, that he recognized Villareal's force as a legal part of the border revolutionary movement and that their joint endeavor would be to restore peace to the republic.

It was learned that a committee from Mexico City has arrived in Monterrey and will go by special train to a point half way between Laredo and Monterrey, to confer with a committee named by the authorities at present in charge of Nuevo Laredo. It was said that another conference will be held with the revolutionists in North-western Mexico, including Pascual Orozco Jr.

Recognition of the revolutionists in Nuevo Laredo is not accepted to mean that the new government recognizes their right to decree a 40 per cent reduction in customs duties on the appointment of a new Mexican consul on the American side of the river. These acts are being left for settlement at a later conference. The port of Nuevo Laredo meanwhile, remains closed to custom traffic.

Emilio Rabasa New Ambassador

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 27.—Two hundred million pesos is the amount the minister of finance probably will ask Congress to authorize the government to raise by means of bonds for the pacification and the rehabilitation of Mexico.

At the time of the fall of the Madero regime a bill for a bond issue of 100,000,000 pesos for the same purpose was under discussion in Congress.

Emilio Rabasa, a member of the Senate and regarded perhaps as the greatest authority in Mexico on international law, has been appointed ambassador to the United States.

years ago of the state of Chiapas, but his greatest claim to distinction is his work as an attorney and as the representative of the government at international scientific congresses. He was not allied with the Madero administration, but was well known among the men of the Porfirio Diaz regime. He is 56 years old and speaks English fluently.

The government looks confidently to the future. It was announced officially that the rebel difficulties at Laredo and Matamoros had been sent to Aguas Calientes to install General Carlos Garcia Hidalgo as military governor.

Rafael Tapia and ex-Governor Hidalgo of the state of Tlaxcala, who are in rebellion have conferred with President Huerta, offering to surrender on condition that the government give recognition to their officers according to rank and pay indemnities, and expenses.

President Huerta has refused to comply with these conditions. Regarding the payment of money, he declared with emphasis that the government was through buying idly and instead would send soldiers. It is believed Tapia and Hidalgo will accept the challenge.

Argumedo, one of the Orozco's generals, has notified the government that he will place his men in camp at Soledad in the state of San Luis Potosi, or any other place indicated pending a conference to arrange details for mustering out or enlisting the men in the regular establishment.

Orozco Protests His Allegiance

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 27.—General Orozco has sent a telegram to General Felix Diaz protesting his allegiance to the new government. He places all his men at the disposal of General Diaz, either to muster out or to incorporate in the federal forces.

Arizona Would Annex States

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 27.—A memorial to Congress suggesting the annexation of Sonora and Lower California to the United States was introduced in the state Senate yesterday by Senator Wesley of Tucson. It also suggests the people of those political divisions of the Mexican republic first ratify such proposed annexation at an election.

Youthful Madero to Stay Peaceful

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Carlos Madero, youngest brother of the late president of Mexico, who is attending school at Delafield, Wis., today denied reports that he would leave school to enter in a revolution against the players of his brothers. He will finish the school term and in June will join other members of the Madero family in Europe.

Denies Execution of Emilio Madero

LAREDO, Tex., Feb. 27.—In response to a telegram of inquiry relative to the reported death of Emilio Madero, brother of the late president of Mexico, near Monterey last night, General Geronimo Trevino, governor of the state of Nuevo Leon sent the Associated Press the following message tonight from Monterey.

"There has been no execution of Emilio Madero, nor was he killed in this vicinity. Any reason why harm should be done to an honorable person of such a man as Don Emilio Madero."

SUFFRAGETTES NEARING GOAL

Preparations Are Made for the Royal Reception at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—With the invading army of "hikers" from New York under command of "General" Rosalia Jones within a few hours of their goal, leaders of the suffragette cause at national headquarters were preparing for the Austrian Premier, Count Stuerger, yesterday, that there was good ground for the hope that at no distant time, a general relaxation of the present tension would set in, would be realized.

King Nicholas of Montenegro has made a final appeal to the Russian emperor against the reported decision of the powers to include Scutari in Albania.

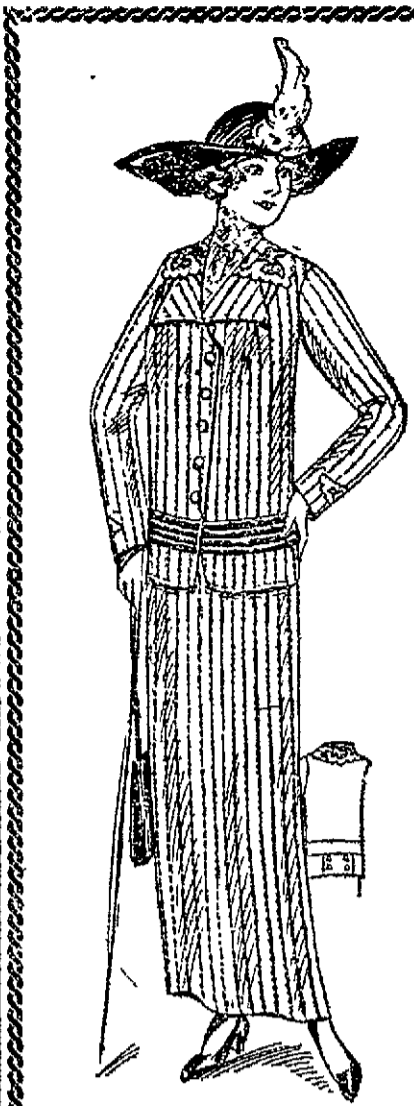

It is understood that the Austro-Russian agreement provides for compensation for Montenegro in another direction for the loss of Scutari, but the Montenegro government in official utterances declines to yield on the subject of Scutari.

TURKEY ACCEPTS PEACE TERMS

The Surrender of Adrianople Is Agreed to, But Russia Will Oppose Indemnity.

SOFIA, Feb. 27.—Turkey has at last signified her readiness to negotiate for peace with Bulgaria on the basis of the cession of Adrianople. The Turkish government has solicited the good offices of Russia, and the Russian government today transmitted to the Bulgarian government a telegram received from Constantinople containing the Turkish proposals for fresh negotiations. The Bulgarian council met today to discuss the subject.

CONFIRMED BY RUSSIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 27.—Dispatches received here today confirm the report that the Turkish government has expressed willingness to surrender the fortress of Adrianople. Russia will not support Bulgaria's demand for a war indemnity from Turkey.

FIGHTING AT BULAIR.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 27.—Fighting was reported today between the Bulgarians and Turkish forces at Bulair, in the Gallipoli peninsula. No details have been received.

RUMANIA ACCEPTS.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Feb. 27.—Rumania accepted today the offer of mediation made by the powers in the boundary dispute between Rumania and Bulgaria. The government's acceptance is subject to conditions which include the acquisition by Rumania of the Bulgarian town of Silistra.

RUSSIA TO DEMOBILIZE.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 27.—Demobilization of the Austrian and Russian forces has been decided upon, according to information from most reliable sources, as a result of the recent extension of letters between Emperor Francis Joseph and the Russian emperor. The extra units concentrated on the respective frontiers, it is stated, will be simultaneously withdrawn in the near future and the reservists disbanded.

This action coincides with the preparations for the tercentenary celebration of the Romanoff dynasty, which it is desired to mark by a reduction in international relations and good will in internal politics. An amnesty decree on a large scale now is being prepared.

VIENNA STILL DOUBTFUL.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Austria and Russia have not yet taken effective steps to demobilize, and in Vienna some doubt is expressed as to whether the agreement announced at St. Petersburg has advanced quite so far as stated, but it is believed that the prediction of the Austrian Premier, Count Stuerger, yesterday, that there was good ground for the hope that at no distant time, a general relaxation of the present tension would set in, would be realized.

King Nicholas of Montenegro has made a final appeal to the Russian emperor against the reported decision of the powers to include Scutari in Albania.

section one, subsection F. This subsection was also included in the abrogation. It reads: "The president of the associated students shall appoint a committee of three consisting of the captain and the coach of the football team for the ensuing year and one alumnus. These representatives shall be known as the football rules committee and shall have power to announce, regulate, change, interpret and publish the rules governing football for the ensuing year. This committee shall meet the first Saturday in September."

The members of the executive committee of the University of California student body are as follows:

Clare Torrey, president of the Associated Students, chairman, R. G. Hill, vice chairman, William J. Donald, graduate manager, Professor T. E. Futim, faculty representative, Harry Woods, athletic representative. The alumni's place on the executive

'President Taft Fooled by System'

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—"President Taft was fooled by the system" into attending the recent police lieutenants' banquet in New York, in the opinion of former Mayor Geo. B. McClellan. Mr. McClellan expressed this view in testifying today before the legislative committee for remedial police legislation. The witness said that during his administration six years ago, the system was so strongly entrenched that on one occasion he could find but one policeman who would tell the truth. Today, McClellan thought, the rank and file were more honest than dishonest. The reverse was true, he thought, among the higher officers.

he will change his mind about coming."

Senators Fletcher, Democrat, and Burton, Republican, spoke approvingly.

"We shall be glad to have him, it will give us an opportunity to get acquainted," said Burton.

"It is a good thing to do if the President can spare the time. To have the President in his room at the Capitol would greatly facilitate business," said Senator Fletcher.

TAKE PERUNA FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

S. B. Hartman, M. D.
Columbus, Ohio.

Yes, I mean what I say. It prevents a cough. A cough is an effort to expel catarrhal discharges in the bronchial tubes. There would be no catarrhal discharges in the bronchial tubes if Peruna was taken at the beginning of a cold, therefore there would be no cough. Don't you catch the point?

After the cough begins Peruna will stop it just as quickly as it ought to be stopped. To stop a cough before all of the expectation has been removed is to do great injury. After the expectation has been properly removed the cough will stop itself. That is the only proper way to stop a cough.

Occasionally a cough depends upon an irritable condition of the larynx or bronchial tubes. In which there is little or no expectation.

The problem of stopping such a cough is a slightly different one. Even in those cases Peruna ought to be taken, but sometimes it is necessary that local treatment be added.

But in any case Peruna is needed. You do not have to stop to write me. Get Peruna at once and commence taking it. You can get rid of that cough sooner I believe than in any other way.

Should you wish to consult me at any time while you are taking Peruna you are at perfect liberty to write me. Your letters will be held strictly confidential and you will receive prompt answer.

I want to stop that cough of yours. I want to stop it before it really begins. I want to stop it before it has a chance to injure your lungs, an injury that you may not recover from during your whole life. Yes, I do. You do your part. I will do mine. No. 54.

POLICE ARREST OPIMUM SUSPECTS

Two State-wide Characters
Captured With Drug in Their Possession.

Money to finance an opium smuggling project was obtained, according to the police of Oakland and San Francisco, by a clever check passing "game" conducted by two men arrested this morning in Oakland and taken to San Francisco for trial. The two men are Leo Fisk, alias Owen T. Martin, alias Peter Williams, and Arthur Werner, alias Frank Phoenix, alias F. G. Menrith.

Fisk and Werner were captured this morning by inspectors Harry Green and Thomas Gallagher of the Oakland force and Detectives D. J. Driscoll and James J. McLaughlin of the San Francisco force in rooms at 1418 Jackson street in this city.

At the time of their arrest the police confiscated 15 cans of contraband opium, which the two prisoners had purchased in the city and planned to dispose of in the bay region. They declared that they had purchased the opium for $262, but its value is estimated at over $600.

Fisk was arrested on a San Francisco warrant charging the issue of a bad check for $1300 a payment for an automobile purchased from S. Costello, a Golden Gate avenue auto dealer of San Francisco. Werner is alleged to have been his accomplice and will be held in San Francisco on a joint charge, on a confession made by Fisk to the detectives this morning.

According to the detectives, Fisk has operated by victimizing automobile dealers in Los Angeles, San Francisco and several other cities of the state. By playing upon the eagerness of agents to make a sale, he has induced them, say the police, to accept worthless checks, and has then disposed of the automobiles purchased before the police could be placed upon his trail. He is said to be wanted in several cities.

Detective Driscoll was assisted in making the arrests today by inspectors Green and Gallagher. The two men were asleep in their rooms, and the contraband drug was found in a suitcase under the bed.

It is alleged that Fisk purchased an automobile with a bad check from Costello in San Francisco about two weeks ago, took the machine to Sacramento, where he and Werner sold it to L. Schultz, an auto dealer, for $550. With this money, they went to San Diego and there purchased contraband opium. This, it is alleged, they brought to the city. They attempted to dispose of the opium in San Francisco, but were unable to find a safe purchaser, so brought it to Oakland. Here they were seeking a purchaser, but their plans were brought to a sudden conclusion by the interference of the police.

LEMON GROWERS ADVISED TO CUT

Frozen Trees Should Be Taken
Off and New Growth Permitted.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Lemon growers in Southern California whose trees suffered most from the frost may be advised by Dr. A. J. Cook, state horticultural commissioner, to cut their trees off at the base and allow a new growth on the old root.

Dr. Cook returned from Southern California last night. He says that he saw many three and four-year-old lemon trees on which the cambium bark layer was destroyed. In some cases the cambium layer was from an inch to an inch and a half around the tree and it may be possible to save some of them. In case the layer is destroyed all the way around, however, the tree must be cut off and a new growth allowed to start. Many growers are cutting off the trees with the idea of growing beans until the trees again reach the bearing stage.

BRAZILIANS TO USE LARGE MOTOR LAUNCHES

An English factory has completed two harbor launches designed for taking passengers and luggage off incoming liners at a Brazilian port. To withstand rough seas and bumping alongside, very heavy rubbering pieces and comings have been fitted. The boats measure 22 feet long by 10 feet wide and are each propelled at nearly 8 knots by a 20-horsepower, 2-cylinder, petrol engine driving a propeller at 1750 revolutions per minute.

A short deck is laid fore and aft, with waterways round the sides. Reversing is by a single lever gear, having a free-engine position.

OREGON MAYOR IS FOUND GUILTY

ROSEBURG, Ore., Feb. 27.—After being out twenty hours a jury today convicted Mayor Joseph McCall of violating the local option law, in that he allowed his bookkeeper to sell standard beer to Robert Conner, a former saloon keeper. Judge Hamilton of the circuit court was called twice to reinstruct the jury. Mayor McCall is manager of the Roseburg Brewing company, which for several years past has been barred from a local market by the "dry" blanket that covers Western Oregon from California to Salem.

PRESIDENT ORDERS RELEASE OF SUNDREN

President Taft has intervened in the case of William Sundren, a smuggler of Chinese, who was serving a year's sentence in the federal department of the county jail. The prisoner has been released by the president upon petition of Sheriff Barnett for the reason that he has developed tuberculosis. He had about four months more to serve. Arrangements have been made for having him cared for in the Marine hospital in San Francisco.

DARROW AGAIN ON WITNESS STAND

Re-tells His Versions of Circumstances Surrounding Charges.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—Clarence S. Darrow again occupied the stand as a witness in his own defense, at his trial on a charge of jury bribing, re-telling his versions of the circumstances surrounding the accusations against him.

Before he resumed his story, part of the testimony given yesterday by Mrs. Darrow was ruled out. It was that part in which she testified that John H. Harrington, an attorney associated with Darrow in the McNamara defense, and who was a State witness against Darrow, had told her and her husband in their home that Darrow had done nothing wrong, and that if the prosecution of him did not cease, he (Harrington) would go to District Attorney Fredericks and divulge an important secret in his possession.

Darrow testified that he had never given any funds, except in checks to Eart H. Franklin, the former McNamara defense detective, who pleaded guilty to jury bribing, and was the chief witness for the State against Darrow.

Darrow explained his presence near the scene of Franklin's arrest by the statement that he was merely passing there on the way to Socialist headquarters to meet John Harrington, his legal associate, who then was a candidate for Mayor.

TWO ARRESTED FOR VISIT TO RESORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Police Judge Deasy this afternoon issued warrants for the arrest of John Considine, and Sid Grauman on a charge of violating Section 311 of the Penal Code. The allegation is that of visiting a resort, and it is charged that the two men were members of a party, headed in which was Mrs. Evelyn Cook of Baltimore.

The local police were of the opinion that a more serious charge could be made if Mrs. Cook was under age. She said today that she was of age, however, but a telegram had been sent to the Chief of Police of Baltimore for confirmation of the statement.

IDENTIFY WOMAN HELD AS SUSPECT

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 27.—The identity of the woman posing as Mrs. J. A. Applebaum, held in connection with the killing of Applebaum, a Chicago salesman, in a local hotel, became known today, according to the police. They said the woman had been identified as Mrs. Caille Scott Keller, formerly of Montgomery, Ala.

Jealousy of two divorced wives and a sweetheart in Saginaw, Mich., to whom Applebaum was to have been married this spring, is the motive upon which the police are building their case against the woman.

PLAN EXTENSION OF CAR LINES IN LEEDS

(By CONSUL BENJAMIN F. CHASE, Leeds.)
Powers are being sought in parliament to extend the regular lines of Leeds and also for the construction of more trackless lines to reach outside places. The city of Leeds owns its own street car system. It makes all of the cars used. There are approximately 200 employees in the car construction and repair shops, including blacksmiths, turners, fitters, painters, electricians, etc. The city at present owns 282 cars and utilizes ordinarily about 200, so that a good reserve is always held for an emergency. The average cost of a car built by it and fully equipped is $3000. The cars are all of the double-decked type, those which had open tops are being covered. The life of the average cars is 20 years. The system has been electrified 17 years.

FORTUNE IN AUTOS IN CALIFORNIA

$154,680,000 Is Value of the Machines Now in This State.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—California now possesses $154,680,000 worth of automobiles, according to the figures given out today by Secretary of State Jordan. There have been 86,054 automobiles licensed by the state, but Jordan figures that only 50 per cent of them are still in existence, and basing the value of each at $2000 the total number now in use represent a regular Rockefeller fortune.

The automobiles registered last month numbered 270 as compared with 2665 for the same month in 1912. The automobile and chauffeur licenses last year brought in $73,000 to the state.

TO SPEND FOUR YEARS IN ARCTIC

Discoverer of Blonde Esquimo Will Explore Untraveled Regions.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, discoverer of the blonde Esquimo, made public today his plans for the four-year expedition he plans to lead to the Arctic next May. In this time he hopes to wipe off the map much of the white space indicating unexplored regions of the Far North.

Stefansson and his companions—eight or ten picked men of science—will sail out of Esquimaux, B. C., near Victoria, the latter part of May or in early June on the 347-ton steamer, which, Ketchikan, barkentine rigged, purchased for the expedition by the Canadian government. The barkentine lies in San Francisco harbor, during the next ten days she will be exhausted and sent to Esquimaux. She will fly the British flag, as the entire cost of the expedition is to be borne by the Canadian government and will carry a crew of fourteen.

The barkentine will carry the party far north as ice filled seas will permit. Under favorable conditions they expect in September to reach land somewhere in the Beaufort sea, now unexplored. There they will establish a base, sending a vessel back and remaining for the winter. If this cannot be carried out, the expedition probably will land at Herschel Island, remain there a week to establish a primary base, return to Prince Patrick Land and spend the winter either there or at Herschel Island in the spring they will go north. They will return to civilization in September 1916. Dr. M. Anderson who was with Stefansson on his last trip will be second in command. The others of the party have not been selected.

TO USE WIRELESS.
A powerful wireless apparatus, designed to carry messages 1000 miles, will keep the explorers in daily touch with the world. This apparatus will be erected wherever they establish their base.

A million square miles of snow and ice north of the North American continent and Siberia will be explored, as far as possible. The party is not searching for the pole, if they find it, it will be by accident, Stefansson said. What they want to do is to open the locked lands and seas of the north.

Stefansson will visit the blond Esquimos again and bring them back to America in motor pictures. To bring them back in the flesh, he says, would be murder, they could not survive the "germs of civilization." He also expects to explore the interior of Victoria Land and define the extent of what he believes to be the largest and one of the richest copper countries under the sun.

In connection with other work, the explorer expects to chart a network of magnetic stations over Victoria Land. This will be done for the Carnegie Institute at Washington. To purchase the instruments necessary for the expedition, Stefansson will sail for Europe next Saturday.

CANADA TO FINANCE TOUR.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The National Geographic Society formally released today its claim to finance the Arctic expedition under Stefansson, in favor of the Canadian government.

MUSICAL SOCIETIES TO GIVE CONCERT

San Francisco and Oakland Musicians Unite for Great Event.

Two great singing organizations the United Scandinavian Singers of San Francisco and "Svea," the musical society of the Scandinavians on this side of the bay, will unite Sunday, March 3, in a big concert to be given in Maple Hall, in this city. Saturday evening, a concert of a similar nature will be given in San Francisco at the German House, the two organizations to render similar selections.

Several of the best known musicians about the bay, as well as a male chorus of over 100 voices, will be heard at the concert in Oakland. Hother Wisner, noted violinist, and Miss Esther Helge pianist, will render selections, and the big chorus will sing songs of the Norse-land, as well as standard works of modern composers.

During the Panama-Pacific Exposition, a number of famous singing organizations from the old world will be here and the local singing societies have amalgamated to entertain these guests. A number of concerts will be held in preparation for these entertainments.

The committee of arrangements is composed of three members from each city. These include William Jensen, president, Lambert Gisslow, secretary, Viggo Koenig, treasurer, Emil Högberg, Professor Axel M. Philstrom, Peter Pedersen, Martin Craemer, Sven Svensen, Arnt Haugerud and Konrad Andersen. Prof. Philstrom is director in chief.

MASQUERADES IN WOMAN'S ATTIRE

PARCEL POST BEATS THE REGULAR MAIL

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Half a minute is a close margin in a race from Baton Rouge, La., to Sacramento but nevertheless that is the lead that parcel post held on the regular first-class mail matter in a finish at the State Capitol.

Capitol Superintendent George D. Radcliff received a young gum tree by parcel post from Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr of Sacramento, who are traveling in the South. It weighed five pounds and was in fine shape.

He had just opened it, and was examining the specimen when along came the regular mail carrier with the letter explaining the sending of the package. Both were mailed at 4 p. m. of February 21, at Baton Rouge, La. The tree will be set out in Capitol Park.

DOWN TOWN CLUB HOLDS GET-TOGETHER BANQUET

Lower Broadway Improvement Club Entertains City Officials at First Dinner

Representatives of the various important business houses of this city, representing Oakland's liveliest boosters gathered last night nearly 200 strong at the Barnum Cafe, the occasion being the first of a series of "get-together" banquets to be given monthly by the Down Town Improvement Club.

E. J. Ryker acted as toastmaster. Following a brief talk in which he stated that the Down Town Improvement Club wanted things and was going to get them, Toastmaster Ryker introduced the speakers of the evening. They were Mayor Frank K. Mott, Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen, Commissioner F. C. Turner, Commissioner Harold S. Anderson, Commissioner John Forrest, Charles F. Gorman president of the Alameda County Civic League, and Louis Aber, president of the Down Town Improvement Club.

Commissioner Baccus had been invited to attend the affair but was unable to do so, having business out of town. MAYOR MOTT SPEAKS. "The only way a thing can be accomplished these days," said Mott, "is to organize, to get together, and you are certainly doing that. Every property owner in the city should join the organization and help it along." Mayor Mott then gave a brief outline of the improvement in Oakland since an early date.

He gave the south of Twelfth street property owners something of a start when he said "Oakland's business has congregated about Fourteenth street, and the reason is because you property owners have sat on your ground and permitted the city to build up a modern business district." He said that the city could not get all of the business that has literally been thrown away or diverted to upper Oakland.

LEFT FAR BEHIND. "It is a pity, a mistake, that part of Oakland should become dilapidated and left far behind," said Mott. "The administration is behind you and I, as well as my associates, will do everything in our power to assist build up this section."

The Mayor stated that within six weeks the city hall would house the city hall officials, and that much traffic would be diverted down Washington street by the removal of the old city hall.

In conclusion Mott said, "We have got to take off our coats and keep them off our backs. There is no more time for the jealousy apparent that was in evidence several years ago. This is shown by the fact that in the past seven years everything started was satisfactorily finished."

Mayor was enthusiastically applauded. "The cleanest and ablest chief of police the Pacific Coast has ever had" was the way Toastmaster Ryker introduced Chief of Police Petersen.

CHIEF PETERSEN SPEAKS. "We have a clean city," said Petersen. "No city of size and condition as the city of Oakland is as clean morally as this city."

"We have no right to take a view of the extreme sections of the city. We want to get the tourists here. We don't want it too poor and not too good. We want to draw a medium line. A line that will show common sense and civic decency."

Each section of the city has a different view," declared Petersen, "and neither should be biased enough to interfere with the other and try to make all conform to one idea and one viewpoint—its own particular viewpoint."

WANT CLEAN CITY. Commissioner Turner was the next speaker. "We don't want to see slums or tenements that have been the bane of Eastern cities grow up in Oakland," said Turner. "It won't do to put up inadequate buildings. The buildings constructed from now on should be the best in material and health facilities."

In regard to the reported moving of Barbary Coast residents of San Francisco to Oakland, Turner said, "The Barbary Coast of San Francisco is not going to be moved to Oakland. We will not stand for any such move and the first action of a helga to Oakland will be promptly squashed."

CITY HALL HIS HOBBY. Commissioner Anderson stated that the new city hall was a hobby of his. "The city hall is a hub," said Anderson, "and all of the different districts are spokes of a gigantic business wheel." Anderson declared that the buildings will be one of the best lighted buildings in the world. "Gigantic searchlights which will continually play their beams on the building, keeping it in view not only in the day but also at night," was the way Anderson described its evening illumination.

FIG LEAVES ARE FEATURE OF PARTY

Adam and Eve Garb Is "Impressionistic" in the Extreme.

CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—When Miss Catherine Dudley and Miss Helen Dudley, well-known young society women, walked into the drawing-room of Roy McWilliams' apartments on Lake Shore drive last night attired as "Impressionistic" monkeys, a small but select coterie of Chicago society folk shrank with delight.

When, a few minutes later, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harvey entered McWilliams' drawing-room garbed as "Adam and Eve" there was a gasp of amazement. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey wore fleshings and depictions of artificial fig leaves.

These things may explain why Chicago society yesterday animatedly discussed the "Impressionistic" party given by Mr. and Mrs. Roy McWilliams as a farewell to Mrs. A. Carpenter, who is soon to leave Chicago for a European trip.

Nothing like the "Impressionistic" party ever had been given in Chicago before. It was novel and full of sensations even for the guests themselves, many of whom had become slightly bored by the ordinary diversions of society people.

UNDERWOOD'S CAMPAIGN MANAGER SUED FOR RENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Senator John H. Bankhead of Alabama, manager of the recent campaign of House Leader Oscar W. Underwood, is defendant in a suit filed here by the proprietor of a Salt Lake hotel to recover $1173 which is alleged to be due on a contract for quarters for the Oscar W. Underwood Marching Club.

The hotel proprietor declared that on June 8 Senator Bankhead, acting for the marching club, contracted for sleeping accommodations for 400 members of the organization from June 4 to June 29 inclusive at the rate of $1200 a day. The $1173 represents the amount, according to the hotel man, that is still due on the contract. Senator Bankhead has not yet made reply.

KEEP A BOTTLE HANDY ALL THE TIME

JEALOUSY SURE MEANS OF LOSING MAID'S AFFECTION

By LAURA JEAN LIBBEY

Copyright 1913, by Laura Jean Libbey.

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

It is one thing to court a demure girl, but quite another to fasten one's hopes upon a rollicking, merry, fun-loving girl, who considers it not the least harm in the world to flirt and have all the good times coming to her while her George is away.

She may be the best hearted girl in the world, and mean well, and enjoy going out with George of an evening wearing his betrothal ring. She doesn't want him to spend any more money than he can afford, knowing that he is saving up for their wedding. She knows it will take extra work for three or four nights in the week to make up the money which he has spent in giving her one evening's enjoyment.

Of course, he cannot call upon her on those days, but she cannot figure out how it is going to do him any harm if she goes out with a crowd of other girls and fellows for a walk, or skating on the ponds, or even for an occasional sleigh ride, for that matter. She slips off her ring, and who is there to know that she is "spoken for?" She does not mention it to George, for some fellows are so unreasonably jealous. Meanwhile George plods on at his work, happy in the blissful thought that no other young man is holding Jennie's hand or looking into her pretty dark eyes.

The man is wise who does not insist upon his sweetheart moping in the house when he cannot be with her. If he advises her to go out and have her fling—a right royal good time—he would be much more apt to retain his hold upon her affections against all comers. It is useless to attempt to keep tab upon a lover when he is out of a sweetheart's sight—quite the same may be said of girls. What one does not know he cannot worry over—suffice it for him to believe that she is enjoying herself, passing the time happily.

If he exacts a long letter from her each evening that he may know she is at home spending hours thinking as she pens her letter to him, what guarantee has he that she will not soon tire of it and have half a dozen letters written ahead, when she anticipates going out of an evening to enjoy herself? She may do this and still love him with all her heart and be true as steel to him.

The exacting lover usually finds a sweetheart who is a good match for him. George should give Jennie her own way if he would have a happy life of it. On the other hand, Jennie must not raise a row if incidentally she hears that George has accompanied home, on several occasions, the dainty, pert and piquant little stenographer whom he had carelessly remarked that all the fellows in the office were in love with. Love is an odd game for some players, but those who graciously sacrifice a few points are the ones who generally win out in the end.

SHE IS A WIDOW.

Dear Miss Libbey I am a widow and have been keeping company with a gentleman friend whom I thought a great deal of. He told me we could not be married, as he heard I was speaking about him. He believed what other people said and did not take my word. I would have devoted my life to have made him happy, for I have a loving heart. Let me know what you think about it. MRS. R.

You would be most unhappy married to a man who had so little confidence in you. I am afraid he was not in love with you or he would have shown more faith in you. SHALL SHE HAVE THEATER PARTY?

Dear Miss Libbey Would it be proper to celebrate my eighteenth birthday with a boy friend of mine who will be 18 at about the same date as mine? That is, in having a little theater party, and after the theater we will have refreshments served at my home, as we all live near theater. Would it in any way offend or look improper to our friends, as he is going with a steady girl and I am engaged to another fellow. Of course, it is understood that they will be in the party, as we all are in the same crowd. I am very undecided about having the party, as I feel that I will be doing an injustice to the fellow that I am engaged to, as I know I would feel very hurt if he should have a party together with another girl.

There could be no harm in your having the theater party you plan, so far as I can see. However, if you have any fear of offending the fellow to whom you are engaged you better give up the theater party. AN OLD SCHOOL TEACHER OF HERS.

Dear Miss Libbey Some time ago I received a post card picture of an old school teacher of mine. I would like to know what I should do to let him know I received it. He lives in Washington, D. C., and is yet single. Please tell me how to write an acceptance of the card, if that is proper. I would also like to know the meaning of stamps placed upon letters in different positions, and the meaning of an index finger pointing to several Xs in a letter.

Write a short note saying that you received the picture and that you were pleased to hear from him again. I am sorry, but I am not familiar with the stamp language, nor can I tell you the meaning of the index finger pointing to the Xs.

OWNS CONFECTIONERY SHOP. Dear Miss Libbey: I am 18 and am owner of a confectionery store in this town. I am engaged to a girl two years my senior. She is a girl who was raised on a farm and can do all kinds of housework and understands it. Do you think it best that I should leave the confectionery business at this time of the year is not the best time to be willing to wait, but I am so lonely without her, and spend quite a lot of time to see her. I have been keeping company with her about one year.

I think it would be advisable to wait until your business is prospering better, so long as the girl is willing to wait. A year is not long in passing, and you are both young.

THE CASE OF THE HEART.

Dear Miss Libbey I have been keeping company with a girl in the East for five months, and we had to part, as we did not get along well, and I was very unfortunate as to securing work, which caused the girl to turn indifferent to me. She seemed to have a quick marriage made me feel unhappy, as my purse was running out, and I think she was glad to get rid of me when I made the step to break, as she did not prove the friend who sticks to you through happiness or misfortune. I had loved her more than life itself, as my near friends know, and she declared also at different times that she loved me. I have had a number of girls who loved me, but did not feel the call of the heart toward them, and I never had such scraps with anyone as with this one.

The cause of it was because I could not procure work at the price I sought, or less when I was willing to work for less, but I knew she liked to hear of salary of $20 or more. It is one year since we parted. She has not found her husband yet and we have been corresponding. She wants me back, as I see. I am not in an occupation that agrees with health; it is hard and sedentary is a position I have written her asking if she wants me for love alone, and that being the case, I, being ambitious, asked her if she would be willing to assist me financially to try business for myself should I become engaged to her. She has a few hundred dollars or more. Is it improper to ask her to assist me when she claims she loves me and wants me, and what's more, could do so? I feel that business is my one hope in life of bettering myself for a fruitful marriage. If a girl or a fellow truly loves I think they would do anything in the wide world to get the one. Ought she help me, knowing my truthfulness and having been tested? If so I would like you to write an article on "Assistance and Love," or so, that I may mail her. Love, or so, that I may mail her. READER.

To ask a girl for money, but it because of lack of money, decency in one

New Spring Suits In Unrivalled Display

The woman in need of a Spring Suit will do well to make her selection during these style show days while stocks are largest.

It is high time to doff the sombre garments of winter and don the brighter suits.

And, of course, the fact that Easter is but three weeks from Sunday is another reason why the selection of the Spring Suit should not be delayed.

Splendid Fancy and Tailored Suits

$19.75, $25.00, $35.00, $45.00 to $230

Each price group has a charm, a grace and individuality of its own. THE TAILORING is of the highest order and forms a distinct feature of all Capwell Suits.

The materials are a source of much admiration. Handsome silk materials, silk Bedford cord, silk bengaline, broad crepes and charmeuse. The new wool materials are matinee, needle cord poplins, beautiful mixtures, serges, Bedford cords, worsteds and ratines. The trimming ideas, including the new skirt draping and Bulgarian touches, do well their part toward adding individual distinction.

SUITS FOR MISSES AND SMALL WOMEN—$12.50 TO $45.00.

Suits designed particularly for the younger people and the smaller-than-usual women who find it hard to be fitted in the Women's Section. Very clever models in silk, ratine, wool and two-color combination suits.

ARCTIC EXPLORER LOOKING FOR FUN

John Borden Doesn't Even Want to Take Thermometer Along.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—John Borden, who has just returned from Bermuda, announced yesterday that he would make a dash for the Arctic regions in June.

In outlining his plans in his office he seized an atlas and, placing an index finger on Bering strait, said "I'm off for that point in June. Don't get the idea, though, that I am intending to out Peary. I don't even expect to out Cook. There will be no scientific importance attached to my polar venture. I might even say it is purely unscientific. If we take a thermometer with us it will be merely out of idle curiosity. I don't believe I could read one correctly. We haven't any designs on floor space in the Smithsonian institution, either."

"It seems frivolous to say it, but we are just going up there to have some fun. We start in June when the ice pack withdraws from the strait. We shall sail from Seattle in an ordinary yacht that couldn't look an iceberg in the face. We are going to hunt our way up the Alaskan coast and get everything we see, everything moving, except the natives."

"August will see us start back for Seattle again. Three months in that region should be ample. By that time we will have shot about everything in sight." Borden will be accompanied by a number of Chicagoans. Count de Soriano, a Spanish nobleman, will be included in the party.

MEMBER OF PIONEER FAMILY IS ACCUSED

SANTA ROSA, Feb. 27.—John Ornbauer, member of one of the pioneer Mendocino county families, was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with a felonious assault upon Mrs. Mary H. Clark, an aged woman. The prisoner was held overnight in Cloverdale.

Mrs. Clark is a highly respected woman.

WHITE CAT CAUSES DEATH OF PIONEER

REDWOOD CITY, Feb. 27.—Frightened by the sudden appearance of a white cat in a dimly lighted hay loft, John Hansen, aged 71, a pioneer resident of San Mateo county, fell 12 feet to the foot of a ladder at noon yesterday and sustained injuries from which he died six hours later.

FIREMEN KILLED. ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 27.—James I. Gillespie, a fireman, was killed and another man injured by a fire in a building at 140-142 Whitehall street collapsed yesterday.

The building was a three-story structure and the roof of an adjoining building or were rescued by firemen.

SEX HYGIENE RULING HAMPER'S EDUCATION

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Dr. W. T. Snow, secretary of the state board of health, finds that the postal ruling prohibiting the use of the mails to circulate sex hygiene advertisements is hampering the educational campaign of the board of health along a similar line. Although the postal authorities have been lenient with the board of health since the order went into effect a satisfactory arrangement has not yet been fully perfected. Dr. Snow says:

"The problem is to permit legitimate educational printed matter to go through the mails and at the same time prevent the knavery of those who prey on the afflicted through thinly veiled advertisements or the dissemination of vicious literature."

A petition of Seattle women asking passage of Representative Francis Axtell's three public morals bills received scant attention in the House, only the title of the petition being read. The bills, which were introduced on the third day of the session, are still in committee.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 27.—In accordance with the suggestion of Secretary of State Knox, who feared certain provisions of the bill might be considered unfriendly by China and Japan, the state senate has killed the Hughes alien land bill which had previously passed the House. The bill proposed to amend the state constitution so that aliens, other than Chinese and Japanese, could acquire title to property in this state. Under the constitution only citizens may acquire property.

APPROPRIATION FOR BUILDINGS INCREASED

Senate Passes Bill Providing for Larger Amount Than House Granted.

Total Now Reaches $41,000,000; Amendment Cuts Out Many Postoffices.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—After an all-night session filled with a bitter struggle over public building expenditures, the Senate at 3:30 o'clock this morning passed the public building appropriation bill, carrying an increase of nearly $16,000,000 over the $25,000,000 bill passed by the House. One sweeping amendment inserted just before the passage, at the suggestion of Senator Kern of Indiana, prohibited the erection of a building or the purchase of a site for post-office purposes exclusively in any city where the postal receipts were less than $10,000 a year. This change would hold up indefinitely the reconsideration of 60 or 70 buildings authorized in the bill.

18-Months-Old Bride Accuses Her Mother-in-Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—A practically charging that her mother-in-law kidnapped her husband and her seven-month-old baby, Mrs. Florence Williamson, made a dramatic appeal to Judge Hunt's court today which resulted in the issuance of an order allowing her to see her child. There is an action pending, and filed by the mother-in-law, Mrs. Sophie McNulty, against the annulment of the marriage of the couple, which occurred November 15, 1911, on the ground that the young man in the case, Herbert McNulty, was not of age when the ceremony was performed.

Too late!
These are two of the saddest words in the English language.

The writer remembers a picture of the arrival of the doctor, a little child upon the bed, a distracted mother, a heartless father, the doctor entering the door—too late!

Almost every serious illness starts and ends with a fever—often we walk the streets or go about our duties for days with a fever. Nature trying to warn us, and yet we pay no heed, for we do not realize our condition.

A clinical thermometer is an absolutely necessary safeguard in every home. A child may show a loss of appetite—a clinical thermometer will tell in a minute whether fever is there and if so sound the alarm for expert and professional medical advice.

Illness is too costly—unnecessary uncertainty, so protect your family by having within handy reach a good reliable clinical thermometer.

Get one now! Accurate one—minute thermometer which we sell at $1.00 and a third at $0.50.

Get one before it is too late.

Don't forget to take your temperature when you take an auto trip. Think what the pictures will be worth 20 days from now.

Take, for example, the

How would you like to give yourself a massage treatment every night before you went to bed at a cost of about one cent a treatment?

How would you like to shampoo your own hair every time you took a bath and dry it out soft and fluffy by a hot air blast in five or ten minutes?

How would you like to have in your household a little two-pound aluminum vibrator with a hair drying attachment which could be fastened to any electric light in any room at any time?

You pay 50c for the luxury of a facial massage and indulge in the treat perhaps once a month. You waste half a day and spend more than half a dollar in a shampoo parlor and naturally only go when necessary.

In a year you probably spend $40 or $50 in the luxuries of massage and shampoo, beside the waste of time, car fare and effort.

We are demonstrating right now an electric vibrator weighing less than 2 pounds with all sorts and shapes of rubber applicators good for blotches, wrinkles, black heads, crow's feet, double chin, etc. Attached to the vibrator is a hair drying apparatus of wonderful efficiency, throwing a blast of hot or cold air at will.

If you're troubled with rheumatism, sciatica, gout, nervousness, insomnia or digestive disorders this vibrator, with its Swedish rotary stroke, should help you.

The machine is as strong and as rigid as a little battleship. It won't get out of order and should give constant service for many years.

It is called the "Rev" electric vibrator, and it's as good as the name, for it seems to be the king of them all.

Price, $23.50 each.

You pay 50c for the luxury of a facial massage and indulge in the treat perhaps once a month. You waste half a day and spend more than half a dollar in a shampoo parlor and naturally only go when necessary.

In a year you probably spend $40 or $50 in the luxuries of massage and shampoo, beside the waste of time, car fare and effort.

We are demonstrating right now an electric vibrator weighing less than 2 pounds with all sorts and shapes of rubber applicators good for blotches, wrinkles, black heads, crow's feet, double chin, etc. Attached to the vibrator is a hair drying apparatus of wonderful efficiency, throwing a blast of hot or cold air at will.

If you're troubled with rheumatism, sciatica, gout, nervousness, insomnia or digestive disorders this vibrator, with its Swedish rotary stroke, should help you.

The machine is as strong and as rigid as a little battleship. It won't get out of order and should give constant service for many years.

It is called the "Rev" electric vibrator, and it's as good as the name, for it seems to be the king of them all.

Too late!
These are two of the saddest words in the English language.

The writer remembers a picture of the arrival of the doctor, a little child upon the bed, a distracted mother, a heartless father, the doctor entering the door—too late!

Almost every serious illness starts and ends with a fever—often we walk the streets or go about our duties for days with a fever. Nature trying to warn us, and yet we pay no heed, for we do not realize our condition.

A clinical thermometer is an absolutely necessary safeguard in every home. A child may show a loss of appetite—a clinical thermometer will tell in a minute whether fever is there and if so sound the alarm for expert and professional medical advice.

H. J. HEINZ IS GUEST OF LOCAL BUSINESS MEN

Nearly 300 Gather at Luncheon in Honor of Famous Tourists

Nearly 300 representative business men of Oakland and its surrounding territory gathered today at noon at the Hotel Oakland in honor of H. J. Heinz, the famous manufacturer of foodstuffs, whose address is famous throughout the length and breadth of the United States. With him on a visit to the coast. The guests of the business men were members of a Sunday-school party touring the world, with Zurich, Switzerland, as their objective point.

Today's luncheon was given under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club. President W. E. Gibson of the Chamber of Commerce acted as postmaster. It was originally planned to hold the affair under the auspices of the chamber, but it already had found the Rotary Club already had found the banquet hall for its regular weekly luncheon. It was therefore suggested that the two organizations join in entertaining the distinguished visitors.

HONORS DIVIDED.

Robert Robertson, Rotary Club president, and W. E. Gibson divided the honors, sitting together at the speaker's table. The speaker, Mayor Mott, was placed on the other side of the principal guest, and members of the party, together with prominent business men, occupied the remainder of the long table, set at right angles to the other table, and the guests of the Rotary Club and Commerce Chamber sat.

MADRAS HAS BIG SEA TRADE

The aggregate sea trade of the Madras Presidency for the month of September, 1912, amounted to $28,851,740, an increase of $2,444,441 over the corresponding quarter of 1911. The share of the United States was $478,484, an increase in exports of $58,441. The principal items which figured in the commerce between the United States and the Madras Presidency in the September quarter were as follows:

Exports to the United States: Hides and skins, including fleas, $478,484; wheat, $23,451; sugar, $19,051; cotton, $18,451; rice, $18,451; oil, $18,451; and other goods, $18,451.

Imports from the United States: Petroleum, $18,451; flour, $18,451; and other goods, $18,451.

There is a large and growing demand for the products of the Madras Presidency in the United States. By reason of the migratory tendency of a large percentage of the better classes in this country, the value of merchandise of the Madras Presidency in connection with the establishment of a large number of new and better establishments, is being greatly increased.

A Public Demonstration of Painless Dentistry

I am now giving a free demonstration of painless extraction every evening in my office at 15th and San Pablo avenue, to which the public of Oakland is cordially invited.

I am doing this to prove the efficiency of the ALVEO SYSTEM.

This modern method of dentistry is used by me exclusively in this city.

By the use of the ALVEO principle, extraction is painless and without pain and with no bad after effects.

My method is not of the haphazard variety now being displayed by others who have the conceit to believe they have cornered the dental profession.

I maintain only one office, an office of which I am justly proud. I give my patients PERSONAL attention. My office is not elaborate, but it is clean, well ventilated and comfortable with all the necessities to do good work, but no frills.

My rates are based on actual dental values. You do not pay for pretentious furnishings and unnecessary equipment.

I am located in the low rent district, my actual running expenses are reduced to a minimum. You reap the benefit.

Interesting lectures on dentistry and painless extraction every evening at 7:30, excepting Friday nights.

BARBARY COAST IS NOT LIKELY TO BE CLOSED

Dive Keepers Have Two Alternatives to Dodge Around New Regulations.

Resorts May Either Become Restaurants or Put Women on Salaries.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27. — While a young, lusty fellow has gone up from the throat of the dive keepers who run sensational resorts on Pacific street, which have made that thoroughfare known the world over, has been responsible for the closing of the Barbary Coast, by reason of the regulations of the police commission, the situation is not what it has been pictured. The salaried women will not be allowed to go out of business and the workers, men and women, who have become habitués of this section of the red light district, will not have to seek other occupations and spread the information abroad that San Francisco has been closed up and that the dive is on its knees to accept the alternatives that are presented to them.

The ruling of the commission has been interpreted in several different ways and the dive proprietors are rejoicing in the belief that they will receive the cream of the trade which has been going to the other side of the street. This is by reason of the fact that the restaurants, licensed as such, are to be allowed to have dance floors and women waitresses to patronize them on their dance floors.

It is this alternative that is not the one favored, the second expedient can be resorted to. This is to place the women who now work on a percentage on the salary roll. They will then be allowed to solicit drinks as before and will be in fact waitresses employed and will act as partners in the dance. Women patrons, however, will not be allowed in the resorts.

The two evils which the commission seeks to eliminate are the women patrons and the drink soliciting of the women practically employed in the place. In order to get around the situation and keep on their dancing they will have to either exclude women patrons and salary the women they have, or discharge their female employees, take out restaurant licenses, abolishing the women who have been soliciting drinks in their places, from going on as before.

BERNHARDT'S ART STORMS HEARERS "BUNTY PULLS STRINGS" TO BE SEEN

PICTURES OF THOSE NOW APPEARING ON OAKLAND STAGES OR WHO WILL BE SEEN IN NEAR FUTURE.

CRONIN AND CRONIN, COLUMBIA. MADRIDE CASTELLO, OAKLAND PHOTO THEATRE.

TONIGHT, at the Orpheum, Sarah Bernhardt and her company of twenty-five persons will be seen in "Bunty Pulls the Strings." The outline of the play follows:

Bach's five-act tragedy "Phedre" deals with the happenings in the household of the Athenian king, Theseus.

At the opening of the play the king is absent from his throne. His son Hippolytus, it develops, fears his foster-mother, Phedre, but loves the fair Aricia, despite his father's commands.

The unhappy Phedre relates to her confidant, Oenone, her all-empowering love for Hippolytus. The unhappy love has torn at her heart and disordered her mind, and she dares pray to none but the God of Death. News comes of the death of Theseus and, in view of this intelligence, the queen accepts the advice of Oenone to live and love, that Hippolytus might father her infant son.

In the second act Hippolytus avows his love to Aricia, promising to free her from her bondage.

TELLS OF HER LOVE.

Phedre tells of her love to Hippolytus. He stands aghast. To explain her attitude she implores him to strike his sword to her heart. "or in default of thy arm, lend me thy sword." With it she flees from him, as a messenger announces that the son of Phedre has been proclaimed the champion of all the tribes to succeed Theseus.

Unmindful of her son's honors Phedre is desolate, and lives only in the forlorn hope that she may yet melt the cruel pride of Hippolytus. She sends Oenone to him with a message, but she returned with news that the king, whom all thought dead, had returned from his journey. Phedre, in her perplexity, abandons her fate to Oenone.

The king asks of his son the cause of his strange welcome. The answer comes that none but Phedre will tell. Oenone tells the king of a "criminal" love his son has borne toward Phedre. In his fury the king orders Hippolytus into exile. Phedre is filled with remorse and upbraids herself for not having accepted the blame. When Oenone tells her that it was she who accused Hippolytus and announces his love for Aricia, Phedre turns on her and in a frenzy blames her for all the sorrow. She it was who had her tell her love and bids her "Go."

CALLED ON FOR PROOF.

Theseus, whose love for his son is only overshadowed by the outrage done his household, calls Oenone to prove her charges, but a messenger brings news of her death in the sea. Theseus repents his hasty judgment and orders Hippolytus before him that he may offer his son his minister gifts; but it is too late—Hippolytus is no more. Then to Phedre Theseus declares: "I believe him criminal since you accuse him." The queen restores Hippolytus to his innocence and sends him to the king, whom all thought dead, had returned from his journey. Phedre, in her perplexity, abandons her fate to Oenone.

MACDONOUGH.

The Macdonough Theater will offer as attraction on March 3, 4 and 5 "Bunty Pulls the Strings."

A reviewer in discussing the Graham Moffat play editorially said: "Life, perfectly portrayed, is here in this unusual, laughter-moving play." In a single, brief sentence he has summed up what no many reviewers have been attempting to explain as the cause of the play's enormous popularity, which was great enough to attract New Yorkers to the Comedy Theater for more than a year, while the play was filling the Haymarket Theater, London, at the present day, even though the comedy has been on the stage there for more than two years.

"Bunty Pulls the Strings" shows life in terms of comedy and will live on that account. It is not a fantastic picture out of a dreamer's mind, but a keen series of observations set before you so that you see what life meant to those who dwell in Littlehough in 1890.

SEE VILLAGE BURNED.

One of the most unique and interesting incidents that has probably ever happened in the moving-picture business in Los Angeles, occurred at the Hauser ranch, last year, the Elks of that town thought so much of the little fellow that they made him a full-fledged member of the order. He carries a life membership in the Tacoma lodge, and the members presented him with a handsome blanket bearing the inscription that he is one of them.

Manager Ely has on display in the Pantages lobby the different tokens that the baby elephant has received in his travels, including a mammoth tooth and life membership card in the B. P. O. Elks, Saturday. "Little Ely" will be all dolled up to meet the little tykes, and though he weighs 700 pounds, he is as gentle as a kitten with the children.

Gordon Davis & Co. are making a big hit in their sketch, "Alas Trickle Kix," and Daley Harcourt, the English comedienne, evokes shrieks of merriment at her every appearance. There are six other interesting numbers on the same bill.

COUNCIL GIVES RATE HEARINGS

Public Service Corporations Appear With Data as Basis for Fixing Rates.

Hearing was given representatives of the various public service corporations before the city council yesterday afternoon for the purpose of obtaining data to be used as a basis for fixing the rates for service in the fiscal year 1913-1914. Among the companies represented were the Peoples Water Company, the Union Water Company, the Pacific Gas Light and Heat Company, the Great Western Power Company, the Central Oakland Light and Power Company and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Consulting Engineer of the City J. H. Dockweiler submitted a resolution which was unanimously passed by the city council calling upon the water company for statistics as to rate earning fixtures, meter and other services, active and inactive, repairs, new services, cost of maintenance, list of lands used for water supply purposes, water rights in use, list of physical structures, amount of water supplied, pipes in use, pipes taken up, pipes roiled, flat and meter rates and sources of supply. The resolution declared this data necessary to the rate-fixing, but it is recognized that it will be invaluable to the city in the possible condemnation suit.

FRANCE TO INCREASE ARMY PEACE FOOTING

PARIS, Feb. 27. — Eugene Etienne, French Minister of War, submitted yesterday to the cabinet a bill extending the active service of soldiers of all arms of the French army to three years, instead of two years, as at present. This measure will increase the peace footing of the army 50 per cent.

A measure of this kind was expected and appeared to be in accord with the wave of patriotic feeling passing over the country.

LEAVES COIN FOR SON'S PROTECTION

Inventor's Will Sets Aside Sum of $10,000 for Necessary Defense.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—While protesting that he had absolute confidence in his son's ability to care for himself, Talbert Lanston, a well-known inventor, who died a few days ago, made in his will a strange provision for his son's protection, which just came to light today. "After ranking a number of bequests, Lanston had written:

"While I have full confidence in my son, Aubrey Lanston, in his intelligence, probity and sobriety, yet in order to protect him in the event any attack is made upon his liberty, I direct the trustee to expend, if necessary, the sum of $10,000 in his defense."

GOVERNOR WILSON CLINGS TO OLD PIN

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 27.—As President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson will continue still to wear an "official scar pin." Former Mayor Bechtel of Trenton presented the Governor today with a miniature of the United States seal to take the place of a similar pin bearing the seal of the State of New Jersey that he has worn since occupying the executive chair here.

No Home in This City Need Have a Dirty, Discolored, Water-Closet Bowl

The household duty that was always the most unpleasant is now made easy. Sani-Flush, a powdered chemical compound, cleans water-closet bowls without scrubbing or touching the bowl with the hands. No matter how badly discolored, it will quickly make the bowl as white as new. It won't injure the bowl or plumbing—nor is it dangerous to handle, like the acids so often used.

Sani-Flush
Cleans Water-Closet Bowls Quick, Easy, Sanitary

ANNIVERSARY SALE

An Eight Day Bargain Carnival at Kahn's In Celebration Of Our 34th Business Birthday

Kahns in 1879.

But capital isn't everything. Honesty counts more—ambition counts more—ideas have a wonderful trade-building power—and the good will of the people counts most of all.

And it was mostly in honesty, ambition, ideas and the good will of the people that our capital lay.

We started out with the determination to win the confidence of the people—to serve the public with integrity—to satisfy every customer with every purchase—to sell only good merchandise—to keep our prices the lowest. In short, it was our aim to build business—not merely to get business.

It was up-hill work at first. Oakland was a small place in 1879. Buyers and dollars were by no means as plentiful then as they are today. But whenever we made a customer we tried our best to keep a customer. And gradually—a little at a time—our business grew.

THE little store pictured here shows in what an unpretentious way we began our business career—thirty-four years ago. Our capital was very modest then—so small, in fact, that if the fate of our mercantile venture had depended upon capital alone some other firm would be building that mammoth business structure at San Pablo Avenue, Broadway and Sixteenth Street

Then came a larger store. Then a still larger store. Then this building. Here our business kept growing—growing—growing—and now it has grown so large that we are building Oakland's largest store to meet its requirements.

No store anywhere has a prouder record behind it—no store has a more creditable clientele or holds the confidence of the people more firmly than this one does.

But we do not intend to rest on the victories already won. Success merely broadens our ambition.

The same energy and progressiveness—and the same devotion to our customers' interests—that made Kahn's the largest and most popular store in the city will be continued, and will—we trust—not only hold the patronage of all old friends, but attract many new thousands to us.

As a Fresh Recognition Of Your Splendid Patronage—And As a Pledge Of Our Future Devotion To Good Storekeeping—We Will Celebrate Our 34th Anniversary With

One of the Greatest Events in Our History

It Starts Tomorrow With Many Thousands Of Dollars' Worth Of Bright New Spring Merchandise At Far Below The Regular Prices

FASHION SHOWS ITS LATEST CREATIONS

OAKLAND STORES DISPLAY STYLES Beautiful Gowns, Hats and Also Suits Here

THE fashion show is on. Oakland has donned her gayest, stunningest attire and Dame Fashion is at home today in every one of the more important stores of the city. The windows are resplendent with handsome gowns and hats and bevy of beautiful things so dear to a woman's heart and a man's, too, for that matter, for where is the man who can resist the fetching effects prevailing in this spring's fashions. Never have the styles been so charmingly beautiful, graceful and positively stunning as those shown now. The draped and slashed skirts, in their rich fabrics and colorings, the gracefully draped bodices, trimmed with lace and ribbons and veils, beads and embroidery and applique, are particularly pleasing and the skirts are still, for the most part, narrow, almost too narrow for much walking. In fact, the athletic girl would find many of the models difficult out of her life.

ORIENTAL INFLUENCE. The strong influence of the Oriental note is very apparent in many of the dresses shown. The rich colorings, the beautiful fabrics and the draperies are a delight to the eye. The Bulgarian trimmings are seen everywhere, in coats and suits and dresses, hats and even the waist waists. The new figure line, showing the slight curve below the waist line, is notable, and is shown in many of the Russian and Bulgarian styles.

PARIS CONTRIBUTIONS. Aside from the draped models Paris has sent over the plain skirt in its latest guise. This is generally exploited in a fancy cloth with a coat of plain material. One of the extreme of these plain skirt models is made here in America.

in one place and of a moderately large black and white check. The coat worn with this is of black cloth reaching to the normal waist line in front and with medium length position that is decidedly reminiscent of the dress suit worn by our great grandfathers. The seam in front of the skirt is rounded up slightly in a slash effect, which is actually a necessity for the model is so narrow that it would be absolutely impossible for a woman to walk unless it were slashed. But the slash is so discreet that it only permits of a fleeting glimpse of the slender ankle.

MANY MERCHANTS PARTICIPATE. Among the more important merchants who are participating in Oakland's fashion show are H. C. Capwell & Co., Taft & Pennoyer, Kahn Bros., Abrahamson's, Hale's, Eastern Outfitting Company, the Toggery, the Pacific Coat and Suit House, Co. & Co., the Slimmons, Shafra's Coat and Suit House, Manheim & Mazor, Friedman's Coat and Suit House, Mosbacher's, Gerwin Millinery, Caldwell & Palmer and S. N. Wood & Co., and all of these show a galaxy of beautiful garments which are irresistible.

NOT IMITATORS. "I do not wear a style because someone is wearing it," says Nazimova. "I wear it because it is mine." This is the attitude of the American woman.

SOME SPRING STYLES NOW ON DISPLAY AT THE OAKLAND STORES.

men are the best dressed women in the world. Every one admits it, and they are not dressing according to the dictates of Paris any longer. And I believe the American designers can and are making fashions for American women which suit them as well, if not better than those of the Paris dressmaker.

STYLES DIFFERENT. "When I reached Paris," said Mrs. Reed yesterday, "I found the styles so vastly different from what I expected, yet, they were so quaint and dainty and becoming that I must confess that I proved very fickle in falling in love anew with each model as it was shown to me. Like quaint old pictures some of them were, and I did not hesitate to buy everything in sight, knowing that the Oakland women would wear whatever is shown. At the present time the prevailing styles are all quite small, particularly the Georgette and Lewis models, and what is better, are becoming to every face, giving that youthful appearance so much desired.

MISSIE SUITS ATTRACTIVE. The missie suits are very attractive. One has a green flannel jacket and white serge skirt, others have the cold red jackets and white serge skirts and the blue and white serge jackets with white skirts.

TAFT & PENNOYER'S DISPLAY. Taft & Pennoyer are showing some beautiful suits, all more or less fancy, and made all with the draped and slashed skirts. An afternoon dress of black chiffon and black velvet, made with the balloon skirt, is one of the latest models, and all are more or less Bulgarian trimmed, draped and slashed.

KAHN'S EXCLUSIVE. Kahn's is not making a formal participation in the fashion show because of its anniversary sale commencing tomorrow. However, it is making an attractive display in its millinery and cloak and suit department. Some very stunning effects are shown in the evening gowns, three-piece suits, afternoon gowns and tailored suits. All are original and exclusive models and though the coats are shorter, they are cut on the new fashion lines, and suits are (Continued on Next Page.)

with embroidered mull underneath. The bodice was a combination of Alice blue charmeuse and embroidered mull.

Other gowns are of the crepe mator, the ratine, silk and wool poplins all with the Bulgarian and lace trimmings, elaborately beaded. Among the street costumes are charmeuse skirts with woolen brocade jackets. Another exquisite creation is a gown of white chiffon over pale pink chiffon, embroidered in gold and studded with iridescent beads and a beaded, tasseled girdle.

MEDIUM PRICED HATS. Taft & Pennoyer are laying special stress on their medium priced hats and this particular class of hats are stylishly attractive and, with their irregular, graceful lines, are vastly becoming to any woman. Many are trimmed high with the fashionable numidie aigrette, as well as the question mark aigrette, the thin, skeleton ostrich aigrette and the Paradise, making most becoming street hats to be worn with the handsome afternoon gowns.

FANCY RIBBONS. A great variety of fancy ribbon is shown at various stores. It is not used in great quantities. Numidie is the popular aigrette, also the Paradise and other fancy feathers. In the new ribbons are velours in beautifully colored combinations, Roman stripes and Bayreuth ribbons which will be worn for collars, sashes, etc. Much French crepe is used in the making of hats and the smaller ribbons are used almost entirely. Anemones in the natural yellow are among the new artificial flowers.

KAHN'S EXCLUSIVE. Kahn's is not making a formal participation in the fashion show because of its anniversary sale commencing tomorrow. However, it is making an attractive display in its millinery and cloak and suit department. dressed and the Bulgarian and Russian lines are particularly pleasing.
HANDSOME MODEL.
One handsome model is a turquoise blue charmeuse with an overdrape of cream silk shadow lace extending nearly to the floor in the back, caught up with a circular band of white satin beads. A band of bugle beads circles the skirt. The bodice has a short drape of silk shadow lace fastened with a cabochon of white satin beads with three white satin ball ornaments.
Another is a combination of Nell rose and white, made with an overdress of white chiffon and charmeuse. The three tiered skirt is edged with crystal beaded fringe. The bodice is draped with silk shadow lace studded with rhinestones over a band of pink Nell rose ribbon. Small clusters of French bells made of pink silk are used effectively in the trimmings.
PATTERN HATS.
Many pattern hats are seen at Kahn's, beautiful and refreshing in their so-different style, with notably graceful lines and rich in their trimmings of the vivid Bulgarian colors. Some stunner models are in the mustard or brass color effects, others in Nell rose (trimmed in various colors velvet, small flowers and French feathers, fastened with Bulgarian knobs). An effective model was of black jet with a white brim, in the tam style with a Paradisa aigrette.
In the street hats chiffon and net are used extensively over the Bulgarian patterns and are very dashing and attractive. Kahn's in the millinery department, features plumage, particularly the French plumes and ostrich feathers.
ABRAHAMSON BROS. OPENING.
Abrahamson Bros. are having a particularly beautiful spring opening, and their windows are a pleasure and a delight to look at. They are making a special display this year in their coats, dresses, afternoon suits, evening wrap, petticoats and waists, besides, some very handsome nobby millinery effects.
A very attractive three-piece dress is a raspberry red silk poplin trimmed with self-colored silk studded with crystal beads of the same shade. The skirt is draped with panel front, with the jacket in the Bulgarian blouse effect, handsomely trimmed.
Another gown of raspberry crepe meter was especially handsome, having a draped skirt with inserted panels of shadow lace and black chiffon edging. The bodice is of shadow lace, handsomely trimmed with crystal embroidery in an oriental design. The effect is completed by a soft giraffe of self-material, artistically draped.
EVENING GOWN HANDSOME.
An evening wrap of white imported charmeuse, elaborately trimmed in cording and self material, is shown. The wrap is gracefully draped and has very elaborate sleeves and a lining of American beauty charmeuse. Another evening coat is of champagne color charmeuse lined with sea green satin, having a draped train trimmed with gold cord and tassels. It is of beautiful design and of French manufacture.
Abrahamson's specialty in hats are the Kurzman and Lichtenstein models. The Kurzman models come in all the new shades, one of the most effective being an emerald green trimmed with green chiffon over an oriental crown. Some of the Lichtenstein models are small and close fitting and while the majority of these two manufacturers' hats are all large, they are making a large dooping hat for Easter which promises to be extremely popular.
FINE SHOWING AT HALE'S.
Some very charming suits and dresses, together with the fashionable long and three-quarter length coat, attractive millinery and waists are shown at Hale's. "We had that the blouse effects in suits are to be the reigning feature of this spring's garments," said D. H. Cliff, advertising manager for Hale's. "The vivid Bulgarian colors, which the Balkan war has made the motif for, are in the spring touches, are the most popular in trimming the hats, dresses, suit and many of the separate coats."
One of Hale's street suits which was particularly pleasing was a cream Bedford cord in cutaway style trimmed with black velvet and black and white buttons. Another effective suit was a navy blue with a skirt draped at the sides and the back of the jacket slightly shirred.
EVENING GOWNS.
There were evening gowns in all the new materials and some very dainty misses' dresses for afternoon. One in particular being a Nell rose silk poplin with a white kid belt, all the daintier because of its simplicity and richness.
Close fitting hats characterize the spring showing at Hale's, where are the famous Castle and Crosby hats which are stunning creations.
FOUR NEW COLORS.
Four new colors predominate this spring's styles in hats, dresses, ribbons, etc. They are the vert de russe, or russet green; maroon rouge, red brown; Vatican purple, and coq de roche, pasturium red.
One of the most novel being the in auguration veil, dotted with stars and having a W-M effect in the border, suggesting the initials of the president and vice-president elect. Another novel feature is the automobile veil of chiffon with a venter insertion of face veiling.
TOGGERY'S SPECIALTY.
The Toggerly is making a specialty of stunning street suits this spring, coming in all the newest fabrics, including the eponge, raine, silk and wool poplins and coats, together with fancy and tailored waists, millinery, etc. The evening gowns come in charmeuse, crepe meter, chiffon and messaline in all shades. There are also brocade, charmeuse, chiffon and black chenille. One effective gown is of white crepe meter trimmed with black ribbon, with the new draped skirt effect. Others come in all shades of silk chiffon, handsomely trimmed with baby roses, rhinestone buckles, etc.
A stunning suit is made in pigeon blue silk, corded and elaborately trimmed in Bulgarian colors. Another is of emerald green with cutaway jacket with a white serge skirt trimmed with glass buttons.
The hats are the latest models in the small, close-fitting style, trimmed with small flowers, beautiful new ribbons and the Mohammedan bird trimmings. The Eastern Outfitters Company has a specialty in beautiful waists, which include marquisette trimmed with Irish crochet, hand-embroidery, cluny and shadow lace. Others come in volles, lingerie materials, chiffons over Persian silk and other materials, many of them Bulgarian trimmed.
PACIFIC CLOAK AND SUIT HOUSE.
At the Pacific Cloak and Suit House are shown some very handsome models and there the black and white checks and Bedford cords seem to predominate. Some very pleasing effects come in the eponge, raine and other new materials and are made with the French backs with the high waist line, Apache suits and Balkan blouses.
The evening gowns, three-piece street suits, separate coats and tailored suits come in all the new materials and colorings and are distinctly exclusive and charming. The Pacific Cloak and Suit House is making a specialty of its street suits this spring and its garments are well worth seeing and buying. The coats average 2 to 28 inches long, distinguished by the cutaway or rounded effect, with a tendency for colorful trimmings. Collars, cuffs and revers come with bright colored silk contrasts. The popular effect for skirts are tightly tailored or various draped effects. Their skirts, too, are notable for vivid color touches.
S. N. WOODS SHOW HATS.
A large line of Eastern and pattern hats is being shown by S. N. Wood in their ladies' department, all the new ideas of spring finding expression in their assortment of millinery. Many of the models show the trimming at the center of the front brim, one of the new concepts. Tailored hats are, as always, a feature of the display at this store. One small model was of fine Milan straw, with a band and facing of deep blue velvet, a stick-up ornament of Coque de roche in the center front. One of the well-known lines of tailored hats displayed here is the Hyland.
The suit department shows a wide choice of materials and styles. Ratione, silk Bedford cord and brocade woolen effects are the favorites. Cutaway coats and draped skirts are much seen, but the line is complete in every respect and shows all the different models of the season.
EXCLUSIVE MODELS AT COSGRAVE'S.
Exclusive models made especially for the season at Cosgrave's, where the spring models are being shown in endless variety. Blouse effects and Bulgarian jackets take the lead in suit styles, with bright touches of trimming introduced at collar and belt. Draped skirts are also shown in great numbers. One particularly effective model on new lines is a one or two-button cutaway coat with a skirt draped slightly on one side, and of fine imported manish material.
Dressy waists are a feature of Cosgrave's spring display, chiffon and elaborate silks to match the suits being there in all colors. In evening gowns there are some charming models, one particularly of shimmering black crepe charmeuse with jet and silver lace trimming. Another is of pale blue brocade crepe with a drape of figured tan and fringe trimming of rhinestones and beads.
CALDWELL & PALMER'S.
A number of imported hats are to be seen at Caldwell & Palmer's, the new colors and trimmings are shown strongly. Greens are a feature among other new shades, and soft shades and small flowers are noticeable. Satin roses form a new trimming on one imported model of dull blue with long long braided ribbons which are coming in this spring.
GERWIN'S FRENCH MODELS.
French models of the most delightful sort are part of the opening display at Gerwin's millinery store, where style and new ideas predominate. The most charming models from the Eastern fashion centers and spring styles of Paris in their make-up are hardly more attractive than the models gotten up in the workrooms of the firm. Picot edged ribbons, crepe and chiffon shapes, tiny French flowers and brilliant Bulgarian colors are some of the features particularly evident in the new hats. Some clever new ideas in two bonnets not found elsewhere were seen here.
DISPLAY AT MOSBACHER'S.
The Bulgarian and Balkan blouses are a feature of the suit showing at Mosbacher's, where all the spring styles may be seen in their entirety. Fancy and plain pongee and wool brocade are shown in materials. A specialty is made this season of Bengalline silk coats in dark shades with brilliantly colored linings. Evening gowns are another interesting exhibit, in all the shades and materials popular this season.
MANHEIM & MAZOR'S.
The showing at Mannheim & Mazor's is notable for variety and quantity, with quality always included. Charming styles are shown in afternoon gowns in the new colors, among them one of crepe de chine in Nell rose, draped in the envelope skirt effect. The new chinchilla coats are shown in a range of colors, with Nell rose and white as the favorites. Lingerie waists are displayed in endless variety and style. The suit are of every description, from the most elaborate of afternoon wearables to the simple tailored models for shopping or morning wear.
The millinery line is one of great beauty, with models of extreme shades being much used on the dressy hats. The new metallic finish plumes are here in all colors. Moline shapes and high color tones are also features of the season's styles.
FRIEDMAN'S SMART SUITS.
Smart dresses and afternoon suits are among the features of the showing at Friedman's, many of the suits showing the Bulgarian effects in style and trimming. Faille and Bengalline are favorite materials and beaded, buttons and feather trimmings are shown on some of the most elaborate models. The plainer suits are also shown in the new spring effects.
STYLES AT SIMMOND'S.
The spring showing at Simmond's is one which gives glimpses of delightful things for spring and summer wear, according to order is one of the features of this store and the new materials for spring are being shown in that department. Faille, both in silk and wool, wool brocade and eponge are much seen, in a wide range of fashionable shades. Coats are shown as well as suits and gowns in the ready-to-wear department.
One suit on the newest lines is fashioned of tan silk faille, the draped skirt joined to a hump embroidered with a wide band of Bulgarian lines with long shoulder and a ruche of brown ostrich feathers around the collar and sleeves. The buttons are of silk, hand-embroidered and beaded.
SHAFRAN'S SHOW GOWNS.
Stunning afternoon gowns are one of the principal displays at Shafraan's, crepe meter, brocade crepe, silk faille and others, being shown in materials and the colors the new ones of spring. Nell rose and pigeon blue are two of the colors shown in the styles are as dainty or elaborate as one could wish. One of the prettiest models was of dark brown crepe meter, made with a short bolero and a vestee of Dresden brocade. In suits there are some of the most favorite materials, with Bulgarian effects predominating.

FROM THE PINE WOODS
HYOMEI'S Aromatic Air is Guaranteed to Relieve Catarrh or Cough Nothing.
HYOMEI is nature's true remedy for catarrh. There is no stomach doing in using HYOMEI, no more than there is when you go to the mountains or the seashore to get relief from lung troubles.
When using the HYOMEI treatment the air you breathe is like that on the mountains high above sea level, where the pine woods fill the air with aromatic healing that gives health and strength to those suffering from diseases of the respiratory organs. Breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, the healing balsams of HYOMEI reach the most remote air cells of the throat, nose and lungs, destroying all catarrhal germs and giving quick relief.
HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-mei) has performed almost miraculous cures of catarrh, often restoring health in chronic cases that had given up all hope of recovery. Its best action is at the start of the disease, when the breath is becoming offensive, and when discharges from the nose, droppings in the throat and frequent coughing begin to make life a burden. At the first symptom of catarrhal trouble, such as sniffling and hawking, use HYOMEI and see how quickly you get relief.
The complete outfit costs but $1.00, extra bottles, if later needed, 50 cents, and in solid under guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction. Druggists everywhere.

WANTED DAMAGES FOR GOLD TOOTH
Parties to Suit Appear Before Judge With Evidence in Bottle.
A. G. Willett, a Berkeley grocer, lost a gold tooth during an altercation with R. T. Howard, a Berkeley stableman, and then brought suit for $2500 damages. The parties appeared before Superior Judge Donahue yesterday afternoon to fight their differences with the tooth in a bottle as evidence. Testimony brought out that plaintiff had struck the first blow and that in retaliation the defendant had caused the tooth to become dislodged. Judgment was given in favor of the defendant.
BIRTHDAY RECEPTION AT HOME OF H. C. BRUNS
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bruns entertained at their home in Berkeley last night in honor of the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Miss Louise Bruns, who is popular in the younger set of the east bay cities. A delightful evening was spent in instrumental and vocal music and dancing and dainty refreshments concluded the evening's pleasure.
Besides the young hostess, those present were Miss Viola Kemline, Miss Lottie Higgins, Miss Frieda Forster, Miss Louise Rosch, Miss Helen Smith, Miss Freda Schellberg, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Al Byrnes, Ed Lopez, Jack Barry, Robert Kemline, S. Gray, Al La Conte and Arthur Slaughter.
Some very attractive gowns were worn by Miss Bruns and her guests, the young hostess appearing in a handsome French blue crepe meter with a wide white and slashed skirt, showing an under trimming of embroidered mull.
Miss Louise Rosch wore apricot charmeuse and Miss Freda Schellberg, a young widow, wore white, lustrous, effectively trimmed in cardinal red velvet.
Miss Viola Kemline wore seafoam green charmeuse draped with silver net. Miss Lottie Higgins wore a charming gown of black and white.

ACCUSED SLAYER IS AT LAST SET FREE
Giovanni Pagani, a West Berkeley laborer, walked out of Superior Judge Wells' court last evening a free man, having been acquitted by a jury on a charge of murdering his wife last October. At a previous trial the jury disagreed and the defendant was admitted to bail by Judge Ellsworth.
Testimony showed that Pagani had returned home unexpectedly one afternoon and found another man with his wife. In giving pursuit to the visitor, and not being able to find the man, Pagani stepped in her husband's path and the weapon which he held was discharged. The bullet struck the woman in the breast and she died almost instantly. Pagani stated that he had not meant to pull the trigger, intending only to frighten her out of his way.
How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy
A Family Supply, Saving 50 and Fully Guaranteed.
A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes the place of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for croup, whooping cough, croup lungs, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles. It is made of a granulated sugar with 1/4 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle, then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.
This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant.
The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine and other natural healing time elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.
The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The recipe has been imitated, but no other successful formula has ever been equaled.
A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money refunded, is given with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will obtain it for you. Send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

TWO DAYS REMAIN TO FILE RETURNS
Corporations Must Notify Revenue Department of Net Income.
Corporations have only two more days in which to file their returns of annual net income with the U. S. Internal Revenue department, the penalty for failure to have returns in the hands of the Collector of Internal Revenue on or before March 1 is $1000 to $10,000.
Except those which are specifically exempt by law, all corporations must file a return of net income.
All corporations in existence any part of 1912 and all incorporated during the year 1912.
Any corporation, if in existence for only one day of it forfeited its charter during the year 1912.
If it has a net income of less than $5000 or has no income at all.
If it has conducted its business at a loss or discontinued operating the year.
If it went into insolvency or liquidation it must file its return of annual net income for the time it was in existence or up to the time it ceased to do business as a corporation.
All corporations that went out of business during 1911 whether by dissolution, by order of court or by forfeiture of charter should notify the Collector of Internal Revenue by letter of those facts that the name of the corporation may be stricken from the internal list of corporations.
The internal revenue office for Oakland and vicinity is located in THE TRIBUNE building, Eighth and Franklin streets, and all corporations can file their returns there and pay any tax that may later be assessed against them.

IRISH HOME RULE DISCUSSION TOPIC
St. Patrick's Alliance Committee Not Satisfied With Results So Far.
At the annual convention of St. Patrick's Alliance of America, which has just closed its convention in this city, the committee on home rule in Ireland reported that it was not satisfied with what had been accomplished by the National party, but that it was as yet too early to determine what the result might be.
Delegates from the various cities in the Pacific jurisdiction were in attendance, and at the close of the convention discussed the situation at a banquet in Enterprise Hall, at Twenty-second and Grove streets, where the sessions were held.
State officers were elected for the ensuing term as follows: Past president, Thomas McKeon of San Francisco; president, James McDonnell of San Francisco; vice-president, E. Desmond of Crockett; secretary, J. J. Johnson of Oakland; treasurer, James Conkley of Oakland; sergeant-at-arms, Cornelius Aloysius Morahan of San Francisco; State organizer, M. J. O'Garra of Oakland; State board of trustees, John Gilbride, J. J. O'Connor and John Condon of San Francisco, James McDonnell and James Corley of Oakland.
JURY FROWNS ON LAWYER'S CHARGE
The Verdict in Burglary Case Includes Resentment of Accusations.
"We feel that we would not be doing our duty unless we expressed our disapproval of the district attorney's office and in the police department of Oakland," was the statement of Robert Townsend, a juror in Superior Judge Donahue's court yesterday afternoon when a verdict of guilty of first degree burglary was returned against William Surges after 15 minutes' deliberation.
Although the spokesman omitted mentioning names or facts, his attack was understood to be a direct rebuke to Attorney T. L. Christiansen for his attitude in conducting the case. The attorney bitterly arraigned the district attorney's office, the local police inspectors and the New York city force alleging that his

DON'T SCOLD AN IRRITABLE CHILD
See if Tongue Isn't Coated, Stomach Sour and Bowels Waste-Clogged.
Mother! Don't scold your cross, peevish child! Look at the tongue! See if it is white, yellow and coated! If your child is listless, drooping, isn't sleeping well, is restless, doesn't eat heartily or is cross, irritable, out of sorts with everybody, stomach sour, feverish, break bad; has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, or is full and cold, it means that the little one's stomach, liver and 20 feet of bowels are filled with poison and foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing.
Give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs, and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little waste-clogged bowels without pain, griping, weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.
With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of licentious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious taste.
Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.
Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

client had been mistreated in an effort to get him to confess and ask for probation.
The trial consumed three days. Sullivan stole a billiard ball from an eighth street poolroom. He was held to answer by Police Judge Smith. At the county jail he was interviewed by Christiansen, who resented Smith's efforts to have the prisoner plead guilty and have his case referred to probation. Upon Christiansen's advice, Surges entered a plea of not guilty and retained the attorney to defend him.
In making his closing argument to the jury Deputy District Attorney W. T. Satterwhite resented the attacks of the attorney for the defense.
"This defense is the most appalling proposition I have ever heard of," said Deputy Satterwhite. "It is through such a plea that the innocent are set free and the guilty are punished."
Testimony given during the trial showed that up to the time the defendant employed Attorney Christiansen he could speak and understand English. When placed on the stand, counsel demanded an interpreter. In his argument to the jury attorney for the defense made a plea for the "general forgiveness" which should not be denied Justice. Surges would be sentenced next May.

Third Annual Banquet to Bring Alumni Back to Campus.
The third annual Founder's Day banquet of Leland Stanford Jr. University will be held on Saturday, March 8, at Stanford University. The dinner, which will be an informal affair, will be held at 6 o'clock in the clubroom of Encina hall under the auspices of the Alumni Association. The occasion of this reunion and banquet of the undergraduates and alumni is to celebrate the 22d anniversary of the founding of the university by Senator and Mrs. Stanford to the memory of their son, Leland Stanford Jr.
Proceeding the banquet at 8:30 on Saturday the variety baseball team play Santa Clara College and on Sunday morning following Dr. Van Dyke will deliver the Founder's Day Address in the Assembly hall. The committee in charge have been very fortunate in their selection of speakers at the banquet, securing such men as Judge Emil McLean of the Supreme Court of Iowa, now a member of the Stanford Law Faculty; Dr. David Starr Jordan, Lester J. Hindale, '85; Hugh H. Brown, '97; G. E. Crothers, '95; Mrs. Everett W. Smith and members of the board of trustees.
From the unusual interest already shown the affair will no doubt be the greatest gathering of Stanford students to return to their alma mater at one time and the campus in preparing to receive one of the great numbers that will spend the week-end. Tickets in the banquet should be obtained in advance from J. J. McDonnell at Stanford or Herman R. Hiltstein, secretary-treasurer of the Oakland alumni of Stanford University.

AUTO BANDITS SENTENCED TO DEATH

SUFFRAGETTES LIABLE TO IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE

Pankhursts Face Heavy Sentence for Arson

Leader of Militants in Defiant Mood; More Trouble in Sight

LONDON, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, Sylvia Pankhurst and other militant suffragettes, are liable to conviction to penal servitude for life, under the malicious damage act, for their alleged participation or instigation in the burning of buildings in public parks.

This announcement was made today by Public Prosecutor Travers Humphrey, in asking the magistrate at the New Police Court to commit for trial Miss Lillian Lenton and Miss Joyce Locke who were arrested February 20, for setting fire to a building in the New Botanical Gardens.

Mrs. Pankhurst, who has assumed the responsibility for this, as well as other attempts at incendiarism, also takes the blame for the blowing up of the Lloyd George home.

ATTACKS ARE PLANNED.

According to the police, the suffragettes appear to have planned systematic attacks of incendiarism on London's sporting grounds. Two suffragettes were arrested last night at the All-England tennis grounds at Wimbledon, with bags containing inflammable materials. Two others were surprised under similar circumstances at Roehampton Cricket grounds, but escaped. They left behind a note reading:

"This was done because bail was refused Mrs. Pankhurst."

The public prosecutor in making his statement that the suffragettes were liable to penal servitude for life, said:

"I make my charge under the malicious damage act, which makes it a felony punishable by penal servitude for life for any person to fire a building belonging to the King, devoted to the public use."

ONLY ONE IN COURT.

At the hearing today only Miss Locke appeared. Miss Lenton having been released owing to ill-health, suffering from a hunger strike. Humphrey said the prison physicians reported that she would have died unless released.

The magistrate protested that the procedure was an extraordinary one. Prisoners, he continued, some times are released from prison, but not from custody. He immediately issued a warrant for her arrest.

Miss Locke, who also started a hunger strike while detained, was forcibly fed. She pleaded today that she was too ill to conduct her defense but the cases proceeded and she was committed for trial at the Assizes. Bail was fixed at $5000 on the promise of the accused that she would refrain from any agitation pending her appearance before the judges.

HER IDENTITY SECRET.

A young woman who was arrested on the All-England tennis grounds at Wimbledon last night with bags containing inflammable materials in her possession, refused to give any information about herself in the police court today. She was remanded for further investigation. The police testified that they found five cans of paraffine and other combustibles near the grand stand.

Mrs. Pankhurst, who has been committed for trial for being a self-confessed accessory to the explosion which destroyed Chancellor Lloyd-George's country house, has sent a message to the Women's Social and Political Union, in which she says that the refusal to consent to a legal farce being enacted, and I shall begin by refusing to conform to the prison discipline while on guard. I shall take no food from the moment I enter prison.

CALLS TASK SHAMEFUL.

"If I am still alive when the time for the so-called trial arrives, the judges, counsel and jury of men will have the shameful task of pretending to give a fair trial to a sick and undefended woman."

The hostile feeling aroused by the tactics of the militant suffragettes is increasing. At Leigh-on-Sea, in Essex, a mob broke up the suffragette sandwich board parade yesterday, injuring two women. At Walsall, a mob wrecked the Women's Social and Political Union shop which is devoted to the sale of suffragette literature.

MAIL IS DESTROYED.

At Nottingham yesterday suffragettes dropped into many pillar boxes tubes containing phosphorus, which burst into flames, destroying much mail.

A meeting of the militant suffragettes at Worthington last night also was howled down. Mrs. Israel Zangwill, wife of the author, and "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, were unable to get a hearing, despite the order of the mayor. The banners were torn from their stands and trampled under foot and the promoters of the meeting were obliged to seek refuge in a police station to escape the mob.

WILSON TURNS DOWN BID OF CLUB

Declines Membership in Exclusive Chevy Chase of Washington.

Declares That He Will Give All His Time to Official Business.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—President-elect Wilson has declined membership in the exclusive Chevy Chase Club in Washington to which former President Roosevelt, President Taft, practically every member of the diplomatic corps, and most of the high officials of the government belong. Some time ago, the board of governors asked Wilson to become an honorary member, which would give him the club privileges immediately. Wilson declined the invitation, stating that he expected to give up all his time in Washington to public business.

PLANS ARE CHANGED.

The declaration of President-elect caused a change of plans on the part of numerous other social and semi-

FAVOR THIRD TERM PEACE IS PRESERVED

MRS. C. J. BRUGUIERE, WHO REFUSED TO BE NOMINATED FOR PRESIDENT OF THE OAKLAND CLUB.—Scharz Photo.

Mrs. C. J. Bruguiere Declines Oakland Club Nomination

What promised to provide interesting material for a hotly contested race for the presidency of the Oakland Club came to an abrupt termination an hour after its beginning, when Mrs. C. J. Bruguiere flatly refused to consider the nomination for the office, for which she had been proposed by Mrs. G. W. Bunnell.

It has been thought that Mrs. Charles S. Chamberlain, who has been president for two years, would be re-elected at the April session without friction of any sort. Mrs. Chamberlain has been an able executive and from expressions heard on all sides it seemed practically certain that she would be the unanimous choice of the members for a third term. But the ominous "third term" created difficulties in this case as well as in that of an African hunter formerly of great fame, and the bird of harmony came near to being driven from the roosts of the club when Mrs. Bunnell appeared canvassing for Mrs. Bruguiere yesterday.

Mrs. Chamberlain would be deprived of the privilege of running for a third term if there were another nominee for the place as by the club constitution a president can only accept a third term nomination if it is unanimously supported.

ACTION COMMENDED.

Mrs. Bruguiere is an active worker in the club and is at present the financial secretary. She is highly esteemed by the members of the club and her action in refusing to run and thus automatically shut out Mrs. Chamberlain is much commended by a number of them.

The program yesterday was in the hands of Mrs. H. C. Petray and was one of unusual charm and quaint atmosphere. One of the features was the minuet danced by eight boys and girls from the Grant school in the powdered wigs and dainty costumes of Colonial days.

The dancers were Edith Mercereau, Leonard Boveroux, Marian Dallam, Stephen Bechtel, Eleanor Lewis, Calvert Smoot, Lucile Brown and George Specio.

Other numbers included a piano solo contributed by Miss Esther Hjelte of the Mansfield Club, dramatic readings by Mrs. Henry M. Hastings and vocal numbers by Mrs. Estelle V. Sampson, Miss Edna Collier was the accompanist.

Mrs. Petray was assisted in receiving by a number of club members. Among those in the line were Mrs. W. E. Cumbach, Mrs. C. B. Mercereau, Mrs. E. M. Jones, Mrs. C. A. Young, Mrs. J. E. Sanford, Mrs. W. S. Petray, Mrs. Helen Kidd, Mrs. John Ronald, Mrs. George C. Pardee, Mrs. H. J. Paterson, Mrs. James Penrycook, Mrs. H. G. Plummer, Mrs. John N. Porter, Mrs. J. P. Potter, Miss Edna Penniman.

Two rooms were granted to be used as an army headquarters for the Fifth Infantry and the First Battalion of the First Artillery of the National Guard of California by resolution of the city council, this morning introduced by Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson. The two rooms will be set aside on the mezzanine floor of the new city hall.

The headquarters to be provided will afford some relief for the present disagreeable situation, as Colonel D. A. Smith is obliged to maintain his office in his home, and Major Faneuf has his in the armory of Battery B. The two rooms will be used merely as administrative offices for the infantry and artillery companies.

Commissioner Anderson is also interested in a movement to have suitable ground space provided for a state armory. The militia is anxious to get the $150,000 appropriation proposed by State Senator Hays.

MORE THAN 20 MURDERS IS RECORD

Eighteen Convicted in Paris, Despite Threats Against the Jury.

French Outlaws Sentenced to Guillotine and Long Prison Terms.

PARIS, Feb. 27.—Four of the twenty-two automobile bandits found guilty last night of murder, arson and robbery were sentenced today to death on the guillotine.

The condemned are Dieudonne, Callemine, Souley and Monier, against whom a number of murders were proved. Fourteen others were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment.

The trial of the gang which held Paris in terror for months ended today, after 21 days. A verdict of guilty was returned against 18 of the prisoners on counts including murder, arson and robbery. Four of the accused, including three women accomplices, were found not guilty.

Among the indictments were no fewer than 22 murders, the victims being motor drivers, bank messengers, freight agents and policemen. The gang held up a number of suburban banks, broke into the residences of prominent people, killed the chief of the Paris detectives, set fire to buildings and finally when their two leaders, Bonnet and Gargier, were in danger of arrest, underwent two sieges in the environs of Paris.

TROOPS CALLED OUT.

In the course of these sieges it was found necessary to call out hundreds of troops, whole squadrons of military, mounted police and practically the entire force of patrolmen, who bombarded the bandits for many hours and then found several of the leaders lying dead, riddled with bullets.

Carouy, the "anarchist bandit," when he heard that he was condemned to imprisonment for life, committed suicide in his cell in prison by taking poison, which presumably was passed to him as he left the courtroom.

JURORS THREATENED.

The trial was attended by many dramatic incidents. The jurors were threatened time and again with assassination by accomplices of the accused. Many of the 304 witnesses also were menaced.

The court itself was surrounded by a large force of guards, judges and jurors being provided with strong escorts. When the evidence was brought to a close and the jury had retired a tremor of excitement passed over the spectators in the courtroom, for threats had been mysteriously put into circulation that something terrible would happen. Nothing, however, occurred.

The jury remained out from 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon until nearly 7 o'clock this morning. They had to consider a series of nearly 400 questions, which had been submitted to them.

VERDICT IS LENGTHY.

When they returned to court their verdict was so incoherent, contradictory and lengthy that it had to be explained to the presiding judge by the foreman.

At the conclusion of the reading the spectators were stirred with a court for four of the bandits sprang from their seats and declared that it was illegal for the presiding judge to ask the jury for oral explanations of a written verdict. They entered a strong protest against such procedure. Their clients by the verdict were liable to the death penalty and this was a last effort to avert or postpone their fate.

Another dramatic incident occurred after the court had delivered the verdict as the protesters' counsel and decided against them.

SPRINGS SENSATION.

The presiding judge turned to the accused and asked them if they had anything to say before sentence was pronounced. Callemine, who had been found guilty of murder, shouted: "My comrade, Dieudonne, was not the assassin of the bank messenger Cabry. It was I."

This caused a tremendous sensation, in view of the fact that Cabry had repeatedly asserted that Dieudonne shot him.

At Nottingham yesterday suffragettes dropped into many pillar boxes tubes containing phosphorus, which burst into flames, destroying much mail.

A meeting of the militant suffragettes at Worthington last night also was howled down. Mrs. Israel Zangwill, wife of the author, and "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond, were unable to get a hearing, despite the order of the mayor.

The banners were torn from their stands and trampled under foot and the promoters of the meeting were obliged to seek refuge in a police station to escape the mob.

PROVIDE OFFICES FOR MILITIA MEN

Headquarters of Local Branch State Militia to Be in City Hall.

Two rooms were granted to be used as an army headquarters for the Fifth Infantry and the First Battalion of the First Artillery of the National Guard of California by resolution of the city council, this morning introduced by Commissioner of Public Works Harry S. Anderson. The two rooms will be set aside on the mezzanine floor of the new city hall.

The headquarters to be provided will afford some relief for the present disagreeable situation, as Colonel D. A. Smith is obliged to maintain his office in his home, and Major Faneuf has his in the armory of Battery B. The two rooms will be used merely as administrative offices for the infantry and artillery companies.

Commissioner Anderson is also interested in a movement to have suitable ground space provided for a state armory. The militia is anxious to get the $150,000 appropriation proposed by State Senator Hays.

LECTURED ON REVOLUTION. Rev. Edgar Swanton, returned missionary from China, lectured on "The Revolution in China" in Mills hall, Mills college, last night. The speaker has just returned from a tour of inspection in the Orient and related experiences among the Chinese the recent outbreak in the Far East. The lecture was attended by the faculty and students of the college.

SPOUSE SENT HER EAST AND SUE, IS CLAIM

Declaring that her husband had sent her East for medical attention so that he could file suit for an annulment of their marriage, Mrs. Clara I. Bowers Skinner has written Superior Judge Donahue asking that the court stay proceedings in the case until her return. Mrs. Skinner recites that she has not been given an opportunity to become acquainted with the action. She says that she obtained a divorce from her first husband in Wisconsin. Skinner sought annulment on the grounds that she had not received her final decree at the time he married her.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES 'ROUSE POLICE SUSPICIONS

Two Blazes in Prof. Maxwell's Home Blamed to Incendiaries. People All Away and the House Catches Fire Twice in Same Night.

BERKELEY, Feb. 27.—The mysterious origin of two fires that broke out last evening in quick succession at the home of Professor S. S. Maxwell of the physiological department of the University of California at Berkeley is being investigated today by the police. Chief Vollmer has found several witnesses to the two fires, who state that they started in separate parts of the residence, one within the residence, the other without. The first fire was discovered at 7:30 o'clock. The department extinguished the blaze with ease. Three-quarters of an hour later a second blaze was discovered, on the outside of the building, by a neighbor. The department was again called and again put out the flames. Neither fire caused much damage. According to Captain Lewis Westcott of Fire Company No. 5, he carefully inspected the house after the first fire and found no signs of incendiaries. The second fire occurred in the wall of a closet. He declared he had inspected this after the first blaze and found no fire there. Neighbors told Chief Vollmer this morning that the fires were so situated that the one could not have led to the other. Professor Maxwell and wife are away from home, visiting in the country. A son and small daughter remain at the residence. They were at a friend's last evening for dinner, and knew nothing of the fires until they returned late in the evening. The residence is valued at $2000. No reason for an incendiary to work at the house is known to the police.

CITY WILL NOT SELL FIREARMS

Protests Received by the Police Cause Council to Rescind Auction Order.

In deference to protests received by the police department against the proposed sale of old arms by the police department at public auction, Commissioner F. C. Turner today introduced a resolution authorizing the withdrawal of the order for the sale of the arms. It is provided by the charter that personal property useless to the city shall be sold at public auction. With other junk, if revolvers were to have been disposed of next Monday, the firearms have been withdrawn by Turner's order.

ALAMEDA BOY WANTS TO SEE THE WORLD

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—Claude Hubbard, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hubbard of 1120 College avenue, armed with a cowboy hat and a Woodman lappel button, ran away from home yesterday to see the world. He left a farewell note to his parents, telling them that he wanted to see the world. The parents have notified the police, and the boy will probably be picked up and sent home. He reaches the Garden City, if he does not change his mind about a life of adventure and return home voluntarily. The boy was dressed in a brown suit when he left home.

WIFE GONE, BERKELEY POLICEMAN IS SUICIDE

George Logan Kills Himself When His Spouse Leaves Him

BERKELEY, Feb. 27.—George Logan, newly appointed member of the Berkeley police force, died at Roosevelt Hospital early this morning as the result of a bullet wound he inflicted upon himself yesterday afternoon. Despondent because his wife had left him for another, according to his statement, he retired to a room in his home at 2023 Bancroft way and shot himself in the left breast, just missing the heart. Logan was a former soldier, coming to this State from Kansas four years ago. His wife was formerly Miss Anna Ferguson of Lodi, where they were married four years ago. Logan was appointed special policeman here last December. Tuesday he was appointed a regular patrolman in the Claremont district. Saturday when Logan returned in the evening to his home he found a note from his wife. It read: "George, I am gone now. Don't look for me as it won't do you any good. You told me to go, so I did. I will be a long ways from here when you come home. Anyway, I have left the license so you can have that. Good bye, Anna." Since Saturday Logan had been making every effort to find his wife. Yesterday he confided in his associates that he had located her in San Francisco. He declared that she had gone away with an affinity, a former soldier. He added that he had pleaded with her to return home with him, but that she had refused. He seemed despondent, but made no mention of suicidal intentions. Logan retired early in the afternoon to his room in a lodging house at 2023 Bancroft way. Shortly after 4 o'clock the landlady heard a revolver shot. She summoned help and went to his room. Logan was lying across the bed unconscious, a bullet wound in his breast. He was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, where he died soon after midnight.

ATTORNEY SAVES GIRL FOR FATHER

Pleads With Court Not to Separate Man and Daughter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Attorney Thomas Dozier came to the rescue of a father who was about to be permanently separated from his offspring today when he appeared in Judge Graham's court in behalf of Patrick James McDonald. He said he had known the man for years and that while he might be poor, he was honest and should not have his child given over into the hands of others. Guardianship papers were sought by Mrs. Mary Conlin for the possession of the girl, Josephine McDonald, aged 10, who is the daughter of Mrs. A. W. Ward of 50 Fair Oaks street, on probation from the juvenile court. The child's mother died 18 months ago leaving her an estate valued at about $300. Dozier intimated that some unknown person was trying to preclude the girl against her father. He had great friendship for the teamster and would recommend that the child be sent to a convent, and that the parent be given the control over her. Josephine told Judge Graham that she was happy with Mrs. Ward and that she did not want to change her home. The child being allowed to remain where she is.

CANDY GIRL UNDER FIRE IN OWN CASE

Ethel Williams Is Subjected to Searching Cross-Examination.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—Ethel Williams, a candy girl whose beauty led to a multitude of attentions by Otto J. Josten, was forced to undergo a searching cross-examination in Superior Judge Lawlor's court today at the hands of Attorney E. E. Jones. The testimony given at the trial 13 months ago was compared and checked up with that forming her recollection of yesterday. She held to her story of alleged betrayal by Dr. Otto C. Josten, a local wealthy practitioner and denied positively that she had ever had a romance with him. He was a married man and that she had been on her guard. A little night automobile trip to the ocean beach in which Dr. Josten was a member of the party was rehearsed but nothing of special interest elicited. At one point an assistant District Attorney Culina and Campbell became engaged in a struggle in which sharp words passed and which was quelled by the court.

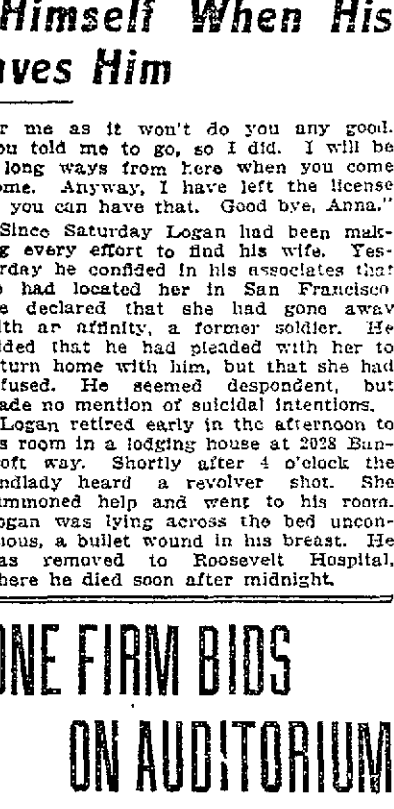

PSYCHIC MANIFESTATIONS OF GIRL ARE MARVELOUS

BOSTON, Feb. 27.—A number of tests have been made by Professor Hugo Munsterberg of Harvard, Dr. Hystop of Columbia, Dr. Henry W. Hopkins and others of the mental state of Beulah Miller, the 10-year-old girl of Warren, R. I., who accurately locates and describes hidden things. Doctor Hopkins makes an affidavit in which he says: "I began the test of turning the stone of my ring inside my hand, putting my hand in my pocket. When Beulah came in from another room I asked her what I had in my left hand. She readily said, 'A diamond.' I then put my hand in my right pocket, and asked her what I had in my right hand. She said, 'Purse,' which was correct. I took a coin in my right hand while it was still in my pocket, and said: 'Beulah, what have I in my right hand now?' She said, 'Quarter.' I said: 'Now, Beulah, if you will tell me the figures on the coin it is yours.' She answered, '2-2-00,' and the quarter was hers. I then opened the case of my watch and looked at the number of the movement, closed the case, and put the watch back in my pocket. I asked Beulah if she could tell me the number of the watch movement. She said, '8-4-2-3-4-1.' These were the actual figures." Dr. Hopkins also took his watch from his pocket, and holding it concealed, asked her the time. Her reply was accurate. He named cards as they were taken from a pack, told just where in the pack each card was, and in every way met the tests made by Dr. Hopkins.

AUTOMOBILE COLLIDES WITH TROLLEY CAR

FRUITVALE, Feb. 27.—W. E. Bartlett, a real estate man of Fruitvale, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday when an auto he was driving collided with a Miller College street car at the corner of East Fourteenth street and Twenty-fourth avenue. Bartlett was driving in the direction of Melrose, and when approaching Twenty-fourth avenue, found his way blocked by an electric car, an ancient auto. Rather than run into the auto, which was going at a high speed, he collided with the street car. The front of his machine was smashed, and the hands of the street car were carried away. No one, however, was injured.

HAYWARD FOLK ENTHUSIASTIC OVER FESTIVAL

I. B. PARSONS.

HAYWARD, Feb. 27.—To show that Hayward is a live town, a town of sunshine and flowers, is the aim of the promoters of the blossom festival, which is to be held in March. It is felt that the festival, as an advertising medium, will be a big thing for Hayward, and the present idea is to have the blossom celebrations as an annual event. A healthy sign and one which augurs well for the success of the festival is the fact that the committee in charge has the whole-hearted support of all the prominent citizens, and the different civic organizations, while outside clubs have offered their help. The festival show card is now on display. It is a sketch of a fruit tree in full blossom, with a Hayward girl sitting in the branches among the blossoms, bidding the stranger welcome to the beauties of Hayward. It has been planned that the Panama-Pacific Exposition management will have a moving picture film made of the Hayward parade in San Francisco on the Saturday afternoon before Easter. In I. B. Parsons, president of the Bank of Hayward, the festival committee has an ideal director, general, and one who will bring his business experience to bear in the organizing of the big affair.

PARTNER MAY ACT ALONE SAYS JUDGE

Court Holds Deal Valid Where Partner Was Not Consulted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—That one owner of a piece of property where there is a joint tenancy, may act independently of the other, was decided this morning by Superior Judge Morgan in an action brought by H. M. Goldberg against the estate of Bernard Getz. Goldberg is the son of Jacob Goldberg of Goldberg, Bowen & Co., and the matter considered was the sale of property owned by Goldberg and the Kiel Estate Company at Twelfth avenue and A street, which was sold in 1911 while Goldberg was in Europe. The Kiel Estate Company contracted to sell the land for $20,000. On the day Goldberg repudiated the deal, he agreed to let it go through after making a side agreement whereby Getz gave him a check for $1500 additional. The check was not cashed until the deed passed through, whereupon Goldberg found that it had been stopped at the Crocker National Bank. The claim was set up that the transaction was unlawful as Goldberg had not consulted his partner, the Kiel Estate Company, in making it. The court today holds otherwise and decides in favor of the plaintiff.

GRAND OFFICERS GUESTS OF COUNCIL

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—California Council, No. 24, Young Men's Institute, of this city, last evening entertained the grand officers of the lodge at an entertainment and initiation given in the club rooms in Lafayette hall. The grand officers present were Grand President Thomas White, Grand Secretary George Stanley, Grand Director William McGowan, Past Grand President John Mallon, Past Grand Director Stanley Riley. At the banquet which followed the entertainment, the party of 25 members of the council, acted as toastmaster. Speeches were made by the grand officers and by Rev. J. J. Brown, Rev. J. J. Brown and District Deputy James Ryan. William Hutton rendered several selections at the piano. J. J. Volney rendered a solo, accompanied by Al. Reamer. A fine vocal group also sang a very pleasing solo and Gaston Vandenberg gave a demonstration of fancy dancing. Ten candidates were initiated.

PICK CAST FOR 'TWELFTH NIGHT'

English Club to Give Its Fourth Shakespearean Play This Spring.

I. B. PARSONS.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 27.—The cast of "Twelfth Night," which the English club of the university will present April 16 at the Hearst Greek theater, was announced this morning. This is the fourth play, the fourth at Shakespeare's, to be given by this organization, previous productions having been of "The Merry Wives of Windsor," "A Winter's Tale," and "Henry V." The English club has been engaged to coach the play and announce that rehearsals will be begun immediately. The work of former producers has been largely due to his efforts, and "Twelfth Night" will prove an exception. B. Pohl is managing the play, assisted by Cady Lovett and R. C. Foster. Much interest and competition was shown during the trials. From the numerous aspirants the following have been chosen to take part: CASSE, Orlino, Sebastian Wilson, 19, Sebastian Wilson, 19, Antonio, C. W. Ward, 18, A. San Capitano, H. H. Chamberlain, 18, Valentine, C. W. Ward, 18, Carlo, J. D. Short, 18, Sir Toby Belch, Roy A. Siler, 18, Sir Andrew Aguecheek, W. S. Baker, 18, Malvolio, R. G. Ham, 18, Fabian, B. G. Oliver, 18, Olivia, L. L. Levy, 18, Viola, Lucius Stone, 18, Maria, Barbara Nudrich, 18, First officer, H. J. Stovits, 18, Second officer, Paul Peabody, 18, Sir Toby Belch, Roy A. Siler, 18, Sir Andrew Aguecheek, W. S. Baker, 18, Malvolio, R. G. Ham, 18, Fabian, B. G. Oliver, 18, Olivia, L. L. Levy, 18, Viola, Lucius Stone, 18, Maria, Barbara Nudrich, 18, First officer, H. J. LONGFELLOW SCHOOL IS AWARDED BANNER

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—A committee composed of C. A. Burt, J. A. Acheson, S. S. Laursen, Lauritsen, and others, representing various local clubs, this morning presented the Longfellow school, that school having been declared to have made the most improvements among the pupils during the past year. The pupils of the school responded to the presentation in song and later gave a drill for the dedication of the Longfellow school. The banner is presented by the Alameda Adornment League.

BERKELEY BALLOT IS NOT CROWDED

List of Candidates for City Jobs Is Not of Unwieldy Size This Year.

BERKELEY, Feb. 27.—The ballots in the city election on April 5 seem likely at the present time to bear the following names: For mayor—Charles D. Heywood, Chas. H. Spear, James H. Todd, George Stoddard, H. F. Briggs. For commissioners—Christian Hoff, E. B. Norton, A. E. Schuch, Charles Green, Frederick Postnikov and William McInden. For auditor—M. L. Hanscom. For school directors—Ray I. Woolsey, Roger Nissen. The announcement of the candidates for the school board members of Roger Nissen and Dr. R. I. Woolsey is expected to be made later this week, though it is considered certain that they will run. An effort has been made to induce Mrs. Elizabeth Witter, recently appointed to the board in the vacancy left by Mrs. Elmer Carlisle's resignation, to run for the office also this spring, but she has not yet announced her decision. Charles H. Spear, former president of the board of harbor commissioners and a resident of Berkeley for the past 23 years, announced definitely yesterday that he would be a candidate for mayor. Spear's friends have been urging him for a week to become a candidate but he made no definite statement until yesterday. The Socialist local last evening nominated Philo Phelps for the mayorality. Phelps is a retired minister. Mayor J. S. Wilson had been originally nominated for the position by the Socialists, but refused to run. It is understood also that the candidacy was tendered Hermann J. Stern, president of this board of education, but that he also declined.

RECEPTION TO BE GIVEN TO REV. FATHER FOLEY

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—The members of St. John's church are to tender Rev. Father F. A. Foley a reception this evening. The former rector of St. Joseph's is now pastor of St. John's church, San Rafael. The change from the Alameda to the Marin county parish was made so unexpectedly that the many friends of Rev. Father Foley here were unable to make him their honored guest before his departure. The reception is to be held at St. John's hall, Lafayette street and San Antonio avenue.

FUNERAL OF AUTO VICTIM

BERKELEY, Feb. 27.—The funeral of A. S. Holton, one of the victims of the automobile accident at Fifty-fifth and Geneva streets, Saturday morning, was held this afternoon from the chapel of a local undertaking company, Mrs. J. H. Holton of Kirkville, Mo., mother of the young man, suffered a nervous collapse upon receiving news of her son's death, according to word received by his sister, Mrs. H. E. Holton, 2550 Woolsey street. Interment was private.

IMPROVERS HEAR OF BETTER PLAN

The Tax Association Officials Speak in Alameda on City and County Government.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—At a meeting of the East End Improvement Club, held last night, Mark L. Requa and T. I. Casey of the Alameda County Tax Association appeared before the club and discussed the plans of their organization. The delegates told of the necessity of conserving the money that is annually being expended in useless ways by the county and various municipal governments. A great many instances were cited how vast amounts have been saved in other cities. The statement was made that a saving of $1,000,000 annually had been effected in water in New York alone, and that $40,000 a year is saved to the city of Chicago by the saving and utilization of street sweepings for fertilizer purposes. J. G. Kearney was pressed to accept an appointment to the committee on commission government, but found it impossible to serve. H. W. Shreve was made a member of the committee. The first meeting will be at the headquarters of the Alameda Improvement Club, on Webster street, when a formidable campaign will be launched to carry the proposition when submitted to the voters at a coming municipal election. E. R. Pease explained in connection with the proposition of compelling the Oakland Traction Company to accept a 5% cent fare from school children that the city attorney is looking up the law in the matter and will report to the council at the next meeting. A number of current bills were ordered paid.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR ELECTRIC TRAIN VICTIM

ALAMEDA, Feb. 27.—Funeral services were held this morning for A. D. Jorgensen, who was killed by a North Side electric train at Lincoln avenue and Lafayette street, Tuesday afternoon. The services were conducted at the crematory at 12 o'clock by the Rev. Everett W. Couper, rector of Christ Episcopal church. Jorgensen left a wife and three children, two daughters and a son. One of the daughters is Mrs. J. E. Gilbert, Jr., a bride of a few days. Coroner C. L. Tisdale will hold an inquest at the Alameda branch morgue tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Jorgensen was a resident of Alameda.

ELY'S CREAM BALM OPENS CLOGGED NOSTRILS AND HEAD--CATARRH GOES

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely, Nasty Discharge Stops, Head Colds and Dull Headache Vanish.

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it--apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open. You will breathe freely, dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat, clears the air passages, stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed, nostrils closed, hawking and blowing Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dripping into the throat and raw throat--it is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith--just once--in Ely's Cream Balm--and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

PEARL NECKLACE IN RUBBISH PILE

Gems Disappear; Found by Child of Watchman and Worn.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—The $15,000 pearl necklace belonging to Mrs. A. A. Sprague II, which disappeared mysteriously in a Pullman car between Boston and Chicago last September, has been restored to its owner, it was learned yesterday.

After having abandoned all hope of ever recovering the necklace, which was a gift to Mrs. Sprague from Mr. Marshall Field the owner came into possession of it again in an extraordinary manner. While the police of a dozen cities were searching for the lost article, a five-year-old girl, daughter of a night watchman was wearing the lost necklace. The rope of pearls was given to the girl by her father, who was unaware of its great value.

One morning coming back from work the man noticed the girl of pearls in a pile of rubbish containing the sweepings from the Pullman cars. He picked it up thinking it was a cast-off trinket of no particular value and brought it home to his little girl.

The child wore the necklace until a jeweler saw it and her father learned its value. Then he advertised it and it was restored to Mrs. Sprague.

Women of Middle Age

From 40 to 50 Woman's Critical Period.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, severe headaches, melancholia, dread of impending evil, palpitation of the heart, irregularity, constipation and dizziness are promptly treated by intelligent women who are approaching the period of life.

This is the most critical period of woman's life and she who neglects the care of her health at this time invites incurable disease and pain. Why not be guided by the experience of others and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? It is an indisputable fact that this grand old remedy has helped thousands of women to pass through this trying period with comfort and safety. Thousands of genuine and honest testimonials support this fact.

From Mrs. HENRY HEAVLIN, Cadiz, Ohio.

Fort Worth, Texas.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and derived great benefit from its use. It carried me safely through the Change of Life when I was in bad health. I had that all gone feeling most of the time, and headache constantly, I was very nervous and the hot flashes were very bad. I had tried other remedies and doctors, but did not improve until I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has now been some time since I took the Compound and I have had no return of my old complaints. I always praise your remedies to weak women."—Mrs. HENRY HEAVLIN, R. F. D. No. 5, Cadiz, Ohio.

From Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

Fleetwood, Pa.—"During the Change of Life I was hardly able to be around at all. I always had a headache and I was so dizzy and nervous that I had no rest at night. The flashes of heat were so bad sometimes that I did not know what to do.

"One day a friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me a strong, well woman. I am very thankful that I followed my friend's advice, and I shall recommend it as long as I live. Before I took the Compound I was always sickly and now I have not had medicine from a doctor for years. You may publish my letter."—Mrs. EDWARD B. HILBERT, Fleetwood, Pa.

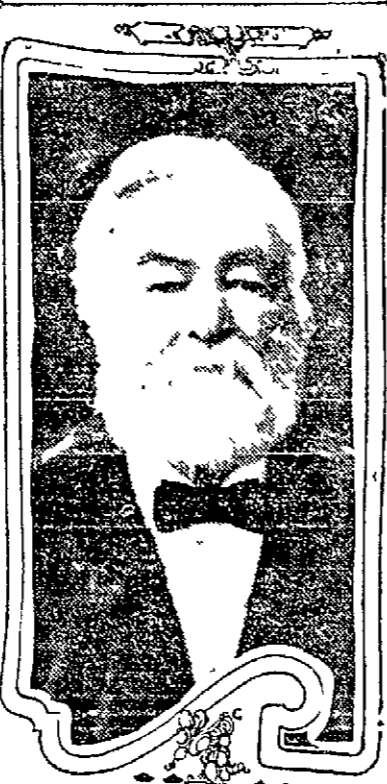

From Mrs. F. P. MULLENDORE, Munford, Ala.

Munford, Ala.—"I was so weak and nervous while passing through the Change of Life that I could hardly live. My husband had to nail rubber on all the gates for I could not stand to have a gate slam.

"I also had backache and a fullness in my stomach. I noticed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was advertised for such cases and I sent and got a bottle. It did me so much good that I kept on taking it and found it to be all you claim. I recommend it to all women afflicted as I was."—Mrs. F. P. MULLENDORE, Munford, Ala.

PIONEER LOCAL MACHINESHOPMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Ives Scoville, one of Oakland's oldest pioneers, who had made his home in this city since the Civil war and who passed away at his residence, 2006 Ruthven street, Tuesday, will be buried tomorrow, the funeral services, which will take place at the late residence, to be held under the auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which for years the deceased has been a member.

Scoville came to California in September of 1863, and has for years occupied prominent positions in machine manufacturing firms. He began as a machinist, and later became shop director. He was the head of the old Oakland Iron Works for many years. With his son, Avery, he established the Scoville Iron Works at Second and Brush streets in 1887. He retired from active business life in 1911, leaving the factory in the care of his two sons, Avery and Frank Scoville.

Deceased had been a member of the Odd Fellows since 1883, and on arrival in California took a prominent part in the work of University Lodge, No. 144. He was also a member of the Encampment. He is survived by a widow and two sons.

Old age, coupled with an attack of paralysis, is declared to be the cause of death by the attending physicians. He had been ill for some time.

CHURCH MERGER IN CHICAGO PLANNED

Inter-Denominational Society to Be Formed in New Chinatown.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Plans for an inter-denominational church for Chicago's new Chinatown, embracing Baptist, Congregational, Christian, Methodist and Presbyterian denominations, have been perfected to such an extent that a co-operative council of missions has prepared a creed, constitution and set of by-laws.

The Chinese desiring to join the new church will be required to subscribe only to the following statements: "I believe that Jesus is the Christ, the son of God, and accept him as my savior and guide."

The only other section of the creed refers to the instruction to be given the members as follows:

"This church shall teach its members from the Scriptures with regard to the fatherhood of God, the divinity and saving grace of Jesus Christ, the work of the Holy Spirit, the inspiration and authority of the Holy Scriptures, the sanctity of the Lord's Day, baptism and the Lord's Supper and the fundamental necessity of living daily with God in harmony with the teachings of Jesus Christ."

Each of the denominations sacrificed certain of its doctrines, but the creed as finally agreed upon was referred to by the Rev. Shailer Matthews as a "common divisor."

"It is an admirable formulation of strictly religious beliefs sufficiently distinct to serve as a basis for association," he said.

STANFORD SOPHOMORES WILL PRODUCE PLAY

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Feb. 27.—Augustus Thomas' comedy, "The Quiet," will be staged in the assembly hall under the auspices of the sophomore class of the university Friday night, August 28.

The second year actors are being trained by Coach Garnet Holmes, who predicts a successful performance fully up to the usual high standard of local drama.

New scenery is being painted by San Francisco artists. One of the features will be a yacht scene in the final act.

The leading feminine role will be assumed by Miss Dorothy Cooper of San Francisco as Agnes Colt. This is her first appearance on the local boards. Miss Evelyn Trent of Santa Monica will interpret the part of Ethel, duchess of Carbondale. Both have rare dramatic ability and will make a decided impression in the coming performance.

M. W. Allen has been assigned the male lead of Robert Ridgeway.

Following is the cast:

Horace Colt.....P. L. Higgins
Agnes Colt.....Miss Dorothy Cooper
Phoebe Ridgeway.....Miss Elizabeth Tarr
Judge Ridgeway.....C. Heyneman

GOVERNOR SEES HIGHWAY SITE

Johnson Is Guest at Hanford and Visalia: Inspects Roads.

HANFORD, Feb. 27.—Governor Johnson was an unannounced visitor to Hanford yesterday. He came from Fresno in an auto and went to Visalia. In the Governor's party were Colonel Snook of Sacramento, Mr. Greer of his office staff and Chester H. Row of Fresno.

"Is the highway situation the principal object of your visit to Hanford?" the correspondent asked the Governor.

"While on this trip I will get first hand information as to the actual routes and changes asked by residents of districts not on the main highway," said he.

That the advisory board of the Highway Commission will take no definite action until March 4th at least was made evident today when a long-distance telephone call came from Sacramento from A. V. Taylor, a member of the Kings County Chamber of Commerce highway committee, saying that the board had adjourned without transacting any business. This and the visit of the Governor have caused new hope to spring in the breasts of Kings county residents here in Hanford and Visalia, who will be placed on the main highway. Under the present survey they are on a lateral.

OLD SHIP TO END ITS DAYS IN WEST

Naval Bill Carries Provision Giving Vessel to the State.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—The historic old ship Portsmouth probably will end her days in San Francisco bay, where in 1845 under command of Captain Montgomery, she assisted in the conquest of California and flew the American flag on the ground now occupied by Portsmouth square.

A clause in the naval bill passed by the House yesterday providing for turning the vessel over to the State of California if the State will arrange to have the ship towed from Norfolk, Va., where she now is, to San Francisco. The Senate undoubtedly will agree to the clause.

It will be necessary for the State Legislature to make an appropriation for the expense of transferring the vessel and then the California delegation can arrange with the Navy Department for sending the ancient relic to San Francisco. This probably will be done and the Portsmouth will be towed through the Panama canal to San Francisco. Representatives Knowland and Raker today during the naval debate urged the House to agree to the clause. Raker introduced the original bill.

ARRESTED; RESIGNS.

PIERRE, S. D., Feb. 27.—State Land Commissioner Pinker resigned his office yesterday after having been arrested on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He was accused of padding his travel vouchers, and after his arrest he turned back more than $5000, the amount he is charged with having secured.

$10,000 IS LOST BY FIRE IN JACKSON

JACKSON, Feb. 27.—A fire started yesterday from an unknown cause in the candy store of Robinson & Froelich, nearly destroying the building. Occupants barely escaped with their lives. The fire extended to nearby stores.

The loss to Mrs. C. C. Ginnocchio, owner of the building, is $2000, partially insured, to Mrs. L. Teller, $1000, and to George Dorman's dry goods stock, $1300, with no insurance.

Minor losses total $6000, on one-quarter of which was insured.

TO SAVE LIVES.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 27.—Articles of incorporation of the California Life Saving Society have been filed with Secretary of State Jordan. The society is incorporated to instruct in the resuscitation of apparently drowned persons, encourage swimming and arrange for lectures on life saving subjects. It is listed as a "non-profit" corporation, organized for the purpose of aiding humanity.

BOY AVIATOR FACES DEATH IN FLIGHT

CHICO, Feb. 27.—Thaddeus Kerns, Chico's boy aviator, faced death while in flight near Nelson. His engine stopped, the acroplane sailing ahead by its own momentum. Kerns was 1200 feet in the air. Slowly he turned his machine downward and then commenced a long, circular glide to the earth, known as volplaning. It took him fully six minutes to land. Investigation showed that the high altitude had frozen the pump. The casing of the pump had cracked and all the water necessary to keep the engine cool had escaped.

evening alone, Monday night, left the violin in and case in the Moran & Co. clothing store yesterday afternoon, thereby providing for the recovery of the greater portion of the plunder he had taken. The burglar had opened the violin case and found it filled with gold coin in the little red bag which the storekeeper had believed that this was all the money in the case. The burglar apparently realized that it would be next to impossible to dispose of the old Amati violin without running the risk of being captured, as a description of the valuable old instrument had been given in the papers, and he had been loaned the case and instrument store for a week. Yesterday he entered the clothing store at Moran & Co., purchased a complete outfit of expensive clothing and asked permission to leave the violin case in the store for a short time. The police were notified and Inspector McSorley and Frank McNeely were sent to the store to investigate. The violin was recognized as the stolen instrument. Inspector McSorley was amazed when he lifted the instrument out of the case and found tucked carefully under the body of the violin, snugly concealed by the padding, some amounting to $500 in gold, which he had obtained by robbing the instrument from its case. The money and violin will be returned to Guido. The police hope to arrest of him.

GOAL ATTAINED ON BAD CHECK CHARGE

J. Samuel Cole, arrested yesterday morning for passing a check for $75 when he had no money, was arraigned before Judge George Samuels this morning for preliminary examination. Cole is represented by Attorney Abe Leach.

While arrested, Cole told the witness that he was the son of L. D. Cole, a salesman with offices in the Phoenix building, San Francisco, and that he formerly lived in this city. Cole lived at 46 Lake avenue, this city. Mrs. Hattie Cole, mother of the man, is a widow who informed of the man's arrest. She stated that the prisoner could not be the son and that he had not left Portland.

Cole is telling the truth.
